SHIP BILL IS KILLED IN SENATE

Subsidy Measure Crushed Before Great Filibuster

SUPPORTERS ABANDON HOPE

Formal Obsequies May Not be Held Till Monday

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—The administration surrendered today to the filibuster against the ship subsidy bill.

Insurgency among Republican senators who demanded an opportunity to get a vote on other measures held back by the filibuster, caused administration leaders to decide to give way.

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Abandoned at last by its friends, the administration's ship subsidy bill is now virtually dead.

All pretense of further hope has been abandoned by administration leaders, who were today considering when the formal obsequies should be held.

Some favored the immediate interment of the bill by unanimous consent. Others wanted to continue the pretense of putting up a fight for the bill against the successful filibuster which Democrats and insurgent Republicans have conducted.

PROBABLE ACTION

The decision, it was believed, would be left to President Harding. In any event, Republican leaders, including Senators Jones, Lodge, Watson and Curtis saw no hope of keeping the bill before the senate longer than today. A motion to reconsider it was in prospect as the senate met today and the rapid desertion of administration forces within the past two days, made it appear that a motion stood a good chance of being adopted.

The situation will be laid before the president once again, either today or tomorrow, by a committee which has been dubbed by Republican senators as "the pull bearers committee."

PLAIN TALK HUNTED

Some rather plain talk may be served Mr. Harding by this group of administration senators, who have, up to within a day or two stood by the president in his insistence on a subsidy vote. The senate is less disposed to hold Mr. Harding responsible for the insistence on a hopeless task he persevered in than Chairman Lasker of the shipping board. He, according to general belief in the senate, has kept closer to Mr. Harding's ear than any senator has been able to get and insisted that the president hold the senate to its task.

As a result a considerable portion of the opposition to the subsidy scheme is now opposition to Lasker. The subsidy was to be laid aside today, while the senate, in response to an insistent demand by many senators, considered nominations submitted by President Harding, in executive session. With the end of the session but a week off, senators are under constant pressure from postmasters and other federal appointees, whose commissions are pending to get them confirmed.

After the executive session, Senators McKellar, Tennessee, Democrat, Brookhart, Iowa, Republican, were prepared to go on, like the brook, however, if necessary with filibustering speeches they began last night. They pleaded a big gallery up to 11:40, when Senator Curtis decided the visitors had gotten their money's worth and sent both the actors and audience home.

HEAVY BOND IS FIXED FOR ELI BRENTLINGER

Eli Brentlinger, 65, of 233 N. Central-ave, pleaded not guilty to a charge of possessing intoxicating liquor when arraigned in police court today morning. He is being held under a bond of $15,000, the largest ever set in criminal court in a liquor case.

A federal warrant has been sworn out against him and police are now awaiting the arrival of the United States district attorney from Toledo. All federal warrants undergo his inspection before the person can be taken.

This is Brentlinger's sixth arrest, according to police records.

SENT TO PRISON

Ex-Justice of Peace Pleads Guilty of Embezzlement

MARION, Ohio — (Associated Press) — Ernest G. Wideman, former justice of the peace here, pleaded guilty to embezzlement of county funds today and was sentenced to five years in the Ohio penitentiary in Columbus.

His shortage may reach $7,000 it is understood.

MERRY CROSS SEEN

LANCASTER, Ohio — The merry was seen on top of Mount at just outside of this city last night, placed there, it is thought by members of the local Ku Klux Klan. This signifies, it is said, that the local organization has attained a membership of five hundred.

SUGAR MAY REACH 15 CENTS HERE

War-time prices for sugar may obtain in Lima within a few months, local dealers predicted Friday.

The price may go to 15 cents a pound before relief is obtained is the general opinion. A corner on the market held by New York brokers is blamed for the soaring price, which already has reached 10 cents a pound in many retail stores.

William H. Stolzenbach, of Moore Brothers, wholesalers, believes the corner on the supply will result in a condition second in seriousness only to that experienced in war time.

No relief is in sight until late summer, it is said, when the Cuban supply and beet product in this country begins to come in. The agents behind the corner have gauged the supply of the approximate needs of the people, about 100 pounds per capita, it is said.

Those who hold control are in a position to force the price to almost any level they desire and reap enormous profits. Lima dealers declare.

Retail sugar has advanced from a low of around $6.50 per hundred a few months ago to from $9 to $10 a hundred at present and the supply is limited at these figures. A survey of the market locally Friday showed the best price offered on a limited supply to be $8.50, but the average is higher.

Local wholesalers see the probability of 15 cent sugar by August. They declare they are helpless and that conditions which prevail here are to be found the country over.

Some retailers are advising their customers to lay in a supply of sugar at the present prices, where it is obtainable. They believe money will be saved by such a move.

MADE PRISONER

REBEL CHIEF IS CAPTURED

Eamon De Valera Taken by Irish Free State Troops

LONDON — (Associated Press) — A Central News despatch from Dublin reports a rumor that the free state troops have captured Eamon De Valera and Liam Lynch.

Detectives of the Irish criminal investigation department, the despatch adds, made several important captures early today. The men taken included five of the principal irregular leaders.

The authorities were extremely confident of the results of the operation but it is rumored that De Valera and Lynch were among those taken.

It is understood, the correspondent asserts, that the irregular army council was surprised by government troops while in session in a house at Drumcondra.

The Freeman's Journal says that among the irregulars captured at Drumcondra this morning was Sean Fitzpatrick, described as the acting commandant of the Dublin brigade of irregulars.

DUBLIN REPORT

Five Irish irregulars, the most important of whom was Sean Fitzpatrick, have been captured by criminal investigation department officers of the free state government in a raid at Drumcondra, it was stated by army headquarters today.

A rumor was in circulation that Eamon De Valera has been arrested in the raid but there was no confirmation.

GIRL WAS MOTHER

Kenton Suicide Believed Parent of Dead Baby

Prosecuting Attorney Herman D. Lease of Hardin-co, announced Friday that testimony given at the inquest held over the body of Miss Pauline Thrallkill, of Kenton, who committed suicide Thursday, will warrant a grand jury investigation of the affair.

Police believe that she was the mother of the dead infant found Wednesday morning in the back yard of the home of Harry Houser.

Testimony given by physicians at the inquest, showed that she had recently given birth to a child, and that there was no physician in attendance at the time of birth.

Four or five girls, who were close friends of Miss Thrallkill, testified.

Mrs. B. R. Smith, with whom she formerly lived, testified that a man from a nearby town called several times, but Miss Thrallkill refused to see him. At one time Mrs. Smith talked to this man, and learned that Miss Thrallkill had blamed him for being the father of her unborn baby. Police are working on this clue.

Other testimony tended to show that the infant had been dead for at least two weeks before being thrown into the yard where it was found.

GASOLINE PRICE HERE TO BE ADVANCED 1 CENT

Gasoline prices, effective Saturday, will advance one cent a gallon in Lima, making the price 23 cents at filling stations of the Standard Oil Co. It was announced Friday. Tank wagon delivery price will be 21 cents. There will be no change in the price of refined oil.

17 PERISH IN ROOMING HOUSE FIRE

$190 TAKEN BY THIEVES FROM LIMA RESTAURANT

Waldo Cafeteria Ransacked and Part of Cash Stolen

$240 OVERLOOKED IN RAID

Police Proceed on Theory Job Was Amateur Work

Thieves entered the Waldo Cafeteria N. E. corner Public Square, sometime Thursday night or early Friday morning and took $189.50 in money, which was kept in a sack in a drawer below the cash register. More than $200 in another sack, covered up in the same drawer and $40 in the cash register was overlooked.

This amount represented the receipts from two days, as the banks were closed Thursday.

Police believe that the robbery was planned at this time because of this fact.

The theft was discovered at 5 a. m., Friday, when D. H. Kyker, manager of the cafeteria, opened his place for the day.

Entrance was gained by forcing a lock on a rear door, leading into an alley, to the rear of the building.

Nothing else in the place was molested, Kyker said.

Police believe it to be the work of amateurs and are working on this theory.

DISCOUNT PROBE TO BE THORO

Receivers of Cleveland Concern Issue Statement

CLEVELAND — (Associated Press) — The affairs of the Cleveland Discount Company, claimed by its officers several months ago to be the second largest mortgage concern in the United States today was in the hands of receivers.

The receivers, William L. David and Thomas H. Hogsett, Cleveland attorneys, were appointed last yesterday by Common Pleas Judge Alvin T. Pearson on the application of W. H. Hopple, Tiffin, Ohio, who until Wednesday had been chairman of the board of directors since the resignation of Josiah Kirby, February 12.

In a joint statement issued by the receivers they declared they would proceed as rapidly as possible to investigate and ascertain the conditions of the securities, properties and accounts of the company.

Our investigation will be just as thorough as we can make it and every feature of the company's activities will be carefully studied," the statement said. "We expect to use every effort to prevent the dissipation of the assets of the company thru needless litigation and to protect and conserve the property for the benefit of all concerned."

The number of purchasers of the company's securities was placed by an official of the organization at 30,000.

Auditors have been at work on the books of the company for several weeks. Indications are, it is said, that they will not be ready to report before April 20.

22 CANDIDATES INITIATED INTO LIMA LODGE OF ELKS

Initiation and banquet, which has been a feature of the celebration of Washington's Birthday by Lima lodge of Elks for several years, was held Thursday afternoon when 22 candidates were conducted thru the initiatory rites.

Following initiation, a banquet was served in the hall room, which was attended by more than 500 Elks. Motion pictures, showing the Flag Day services held by the Elks last June, and the Elks Christmas party, and two acts from the Faurot furnished the entertainment after the banquet.

OPENS CAMPAIGN

FOSTORIA — Rev. Milford H. Lyon, of Winona Lake, Ind., has opened a six week's evangelistic campaign here.

PACT OF COUPLE CONCEALS DEATH

ASHTABULA — (Associated Press) — Because of an agreement entered into last October between Dr. H. H. Miller Brown and his wife when the latter started on a tour around the world—to write each other only cheerful letters — Mrs. Brown is unaware that her husband is dead and buried. News of the agreement was disclosed by friends today.

Dr. Brown was sick for ten days but he never broke his promise.

"I cannot write because it would ruin her trip," he said. Several days ago a letter was received addressed to him in which Mrs. Brown implored him to "forget that foolish promise" as she is sick with anxiety.

But Dr. Brown never saw the letter. He died on January 25, calling for his wife who is somewhere on the Indian ocean.

DUAL LIFE LED BY REMINGTON

Career of Slain Wealthy Clubman Baffles Detectives.

LOS ANGELES—(United Press)—The "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" life of Earle Remington today continued both to amaze and baffle detectives attempting to unravel the mystery surrounding his murder, outside his home here, last week.

Whether the motive for the murder originated in the shadow of the underworld, where Remington is alleged to have played his "Mr. Hyde" role, or whether intrigue with a woman in the high social world in which he moved as "Dr. Jekyll" is not known.

Assuming his role as business man, financier, engineer and gentleman ranch owner, Remington by day moved among those who were the soundest and wealthiest men of south California. He was a high respected member and active worker in the chamber of commerce. He was a prominent figure in exclusive clubs whose doors swung open only to men of wealth and position.

By night Remington became a gay mixer in cafe and hotel parties, where, police declared, he reported orders for liquor on a scale from the wealthy sporting crowd and associated with dozens of beautiful women, who were either clinging perilously to the fringes of respectable society or were frankly of the demimonde interspersing his parties for arranging deliveries and shipments from his beautiful home in exclusive residential district.

That Remington had become so involved that he feared death was brought on, police declared today, by letters in his office.

The letters are said to be from friends in Connecticut to whom he had written and indicated that Remington had expressed fear for his safety. The names of the writers were not made public, but it was said that eastern investigators have been asked to check back for the communications.

A woman is still believed to be behind the slaying and actually to have been present when Remington's life was ended by a shotgun charge and a knife to the heart.

Remington was said to have been a brother of the women, told the coroner he visited his sister two weeks ago when they assured him they did not want for anything.

Sister, daily growing weaker, from lack of food, had lain beside the dead woman for days, not knowing she had perished. She thought her sister was only sleeping. Mrs. Mansfield said last night during lucid moments.

Mrs. Mansfield refused to be taken to a hospital, declaring she and her sister had "never believed in" physicians and that she had enough physical courage to cure herself.

Samuel Patterson, Norwood, Ohio, a brother of the women, told the coroner he visited his sister two weeks ago when they assured him they did not want for anything.

SMOKE CLOUDS MAY BE DISSIPATED BY SCIENCE

PITTSBURGH — It is possible that Pittsburgh's smoke cloud will some day be dissipated by science. Dr. J. H. Cio, professor of physics in the University of Pittsburgh said today it may be accomplished by an adaptation of the Bauroff-Warren "rain-making" process of spraying the roof of clouds with electrified sand from an air plane.

Dr. Cio added if the elimination of fogs could be obtained by the use of electrified sand there would seem to be a possibility of charging smoke particles instead of sand particles and similarly clearing the air of smoke and furnace dust, long a problem in this city.

Dr. H. E. Mellor, dean of the school of mines, took a similar view.

"A GIRL IN TEN THOUSAND"

Albee McCormick of Omaha, Neb., represented the Far West in the beauty contest held in conjunction with the Spring Fashion Show of the Retail Millinery Association of America in New York.

BOND PERMIT SOUGHT BY B. & O. RAILROAD

WASHINGTON — The Baltimore and Ohio railroad today sought permission from the interstate commerce commission to issue and to hold in its treasury $3,770,000 in six per cent refunding mortgage bonds. During the past year the application explained the railroad has paid off maturing indebtedness of its subsidiary corporations to the amount of the proposed new bond issues and desires to reimburse its treasury for the expenditure.

DIES OF HUNGER

Kentucky Woman's Body Found — Sister Near Death

CINCINNATI — (Associated Press) — Neighbors on entering a cottage at Dayton, Ky., last night found Mrs. Maria L. Mansfield, 67, half famished and helpless, lying in bed beside the frozen body of her dead sister, Mrs. Margaret Lanham, 75. Both women were fully clothed. There was no heat, no food and no water in the house.

Coroner W. B. Hughes said he believed Mrs. Lanham had been dead for perhaps a week and that death was due to pneumonia brought on by starvation and cold.

Her sister, daily growing weaker, from lack of food, had lain beside the dead woman for days, not knowing she had perished. She thought her sister was only sleeping. Mrs. Mansfield said last night during lucid moments.

Mrs. Mansfield refused to be taken to a hospital, declaring she and her sister had "never believed in" physicians and that she had enough physical courage to cure herself.

Samuel Patterson, Norwood, Ohio, a brother of the women, told the coroner he visited his sister two weeks ago when they assured him they did not want for anything.

CHURCH CONVENT AT CLEVELAND IS CLOSED

CLEVELAND — After thrashing out labor, social and moral problems for three days, delegates to the sixth annual meeting of the council of cities of the Methodist Episcopal church were leaving for their homes today. The convention closed last night.

The last important business of the meeting was the adoption yesterday of a resolution requesting amnesty for offenders of war-time laws who are still in federal prisons.

Intense feeling on the part of five ministers attending the session, it is said, caused the subject to be considered.

At first it was proposed that an insistent demand be made upon the president and attorney general for the prisoners' release but finally it was decided to appoint a committee to draft a resolution to be presented to the delegates for action.

20 ARE TRAPPED BY FLAMES

Escape Cut Off in Building at Kansas City

3 ESCAPE THRU WINDOWS

14 Autos in First Floor Garage Are Destroyed

KANSAS CITY — (Associated Press) — Seventeen persons are believed to have perished in the fire which destroyed a two story frame rooming house here early today.

Twelve bodies have been recovered and search is being made for those of five other persons believed to have lost their lives in the blaze. Only three bodies have been identified. The identified dead are Mrs. Elsie Colston and her children Violet and John.

The missing are Leo Brown, his wife Bessie, 28, and children Catherine, Arthur, Margaret and Leo, Jr. Alonzo Bartwell, his wife Lillian and infant child.

Edgar Munyon and his grandmother, Mrs. Munyon. Mrs. Anna Sargent and her grandson Donald.

Twelve bodies were recovered this morning, five adults and seven children.

Unusual construction of the stairway in the building is believed by firemen to have trapped many persons. The stairs led to a center corridor on the second floor which branched out in four directions. Persons blinded by smoke coming from the west side of the building, it was pointed out, easily could run by the head of the stairs and on into the east side of the building. This, Colston said, is what happened to his wife and two children, who were directly behind him when he made his escape. He asserted he tripped on the head of the stairs and rolled down the length of the stairs to the front door, the white clutching his seven year old daughter Helen in his arms.

The finding of the bodies of Colston's family in the northeast corner of the building bears out the statement of Colston, firemen said.

Twenty persons were in the building, three escaping by jumping from windows.

Scores of detectives are scouring the section for a "wild appearing man" who is believed by police to have started the fire, which took place within the period of an hour and a space of three blocks.

BUFAFO, N. Y. — (Associated Press) — Fire early today swept thru the block on the east side of Washington-st between Carroll and Seneca-st, causing loss estimated at $350,000.

CLEVELAND — (Associated Press) — Firemen early today battled for hours to prevent flames sweeping into 175,000 gallons of explosive oils and varnishes in a fire that caused damage estimated by firemen at nearly $200,000 to the factory of the Cleveland Varnish Company. The flames also menaced the factory of the Ohio Varnish Company, which adjoins the burned building.

NEW YORK — The separation suit of Mrs. Eleanor V. V. Brewster against her husband, Eugene V. Brewster, publisher of motion picture magazines, brought because of his attentions to Miss Corliss Palmer, motion picture actress, has been settled.

Mrs. Brewster's attorneys announced today that with furnishings valued at $40,000, and alimony had been given to their client. The amount of alimony agreed upon was not disclosed. Mrs. Brewster sought $18,000 a year. Brewster claimed he could not pay more than $5,000. Mrs. Brewster receives the custody of a boy three years old.

Brewster has frankly admitted his infatuation for Miss Palmer, who has lived with him and Mrs. Brewster in their home at Normandale Park.

GAMENESS TURNS BUSINESS TRICK

Success Depends on Displaying Backbone, Forbes Says

INSTANCES ARE POINTED OUT

Woolworth Heads List of Great Fighters Produced

(BY B. C. FORBES)

NEW YORK — (Special) — Schwab, the story goes, met one of his workmen friends in the Bethlehem Steel plant one day and noticed that he was somewhat bedraggled, asked him what had happened. The workman, a Dutchman, explained that some of the younger fellows had got hold of him and had given him a rather rough ducking. "What did you do?" "I just left," was the reply.

My mind reverted to this Dutchman the other day. Every member of my family was sick, the trained nurse in charge was suddenly called away to attend a dying relative, and neither doctor nor anyone could find another nurse near or far. I was having a merry time with an actress which was revealed on pulling a tooth and the dentist had cheerfully informed me that the condition was so bad that it might turn into tuberculosis of the bone. The weather was near the zero-point, we hadn't many shovelfuls of coal left in the cellar and our coal dealer repeatedly informed me that there wasn't any coal available in the town. It is to be hoped, for that, the deluge of "hecks" coming in from readers was approaching record-breaking volume.

I didn't report to Couchman, but I did recall and repeat that the man worth while is the man who can smile when everything is going to the dogs.

And lo! A modest supply of coal came in the nick of time; all the patients made a gratifying rapid recovery; I am still toothless, but I hope tuberculosisless, and the bouquets from readers are again outnumbering the cabbage.

And—let me whisper it—I'm heading for a little visit southwards.

If there is any one thing my burrowing into the careers of not-ably successful business men has taught me, it is the importance of being game, the importance of displaying backbone rather than the white feather. I could fill columns after columns, straight from my memory, of concrete cases of gameness exhibited by men who finally succeeded in reaching the top. Would a few interest you?

Woolworth's first store failed. So did three out of the first five that he opened; but he did not give way to despair. He was game.

George Eastman's business collapsed totally not very long after he had founded it. For some unknown reason his formula for making photographic plates suddenly ceased to work and he was compelled to stop operations. In two weeks his hair turned white. But not his liver. He exhibited extreme resourcefulness and gameness, and won out.

Edison went hungry many times before he became famous. At one time things were so black with him, after he had embarked in business for himself that he remarked to his trusted lieutenant, Samuel Insull, that if the worst came to the worst he could at least get a job as a telegraph operator at enough salary to meet all his requirements.

H. P. Davidson's career was shaped by an act of gameness, which, widely recorded and applauded in newspapers attracted the attention of financiers to him when, as a young man, he kept his head when a madman presented a pistol at his head and demanded that he cash a huge check signed by the Almighty.

Alexander Graham Bell suffered the usual fate of inventors, and even after Theodore N. Vail, a sternly practical business man, joined him, the going was extremely rough for several years—so much so that there were times when there was nothing to put into their pay envelopes, with the consequence that money had to be borrowed for meals. Edward L. Donohy resources were swept away several times, not only in his youth, but after he reached middle age. But he was game, and now he is one of the most successful of king's American has ever produced.

LEASE ON PROPERTY IS CANCELLED BY COURT

Lease held by G. O. Dupuis on property formerly owned by the Lima Brewery, in the public square, was conditionally cancelled in a decision handed down in court of appeals Friday. The court held, however, that the order will be vacated on payment of back rent.

Henry French acquired the building with capital stock of the brewery was reduced from $250,000 to $50,000. Dupuis in the meantime had sub-let to a moving picture house. French sought to cancel the lease on the ground that its terms did not permit a sub-lease to be entered into.

He declined to accept further rent payment from Dupuis. Dupuis leased the building for a term of years at $80 a month. He re-let the premises for $100 a month.

CHURCH MEETING ENDS FRIDAY

Rev. S. M. Musselman Elected
President for Coming Year.

Closer relationship and companionship between parents and children was the motif of the address given Thursday by L. B. Edger, state adult superintendent of the Ohio State Sunday School association to the adult conference of the Alliance association.

Edger declared that in a great number of cases the young mother spends her time at picture shows instead of staying at home and caring for her children.

Election of officers and selection of the meeting place for next year's conference took place Friday morning. Lima was again chosen as the meeting place and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Rev. S. M. Musselman, Bluffton, president; Paul T. Landis, vice-president; J. M. Fowler, recording secretary; Reed Winegardner, treasurer; all of Lima.

Miss J. T. Lippincott, Lima, was elected divisional superintendent of the children's department; Miss Hoadle Camp, Lima, superintendent of the young people's department; Al S. Chenoweth, Lima, superintendent of the adults department and Prof. E. J. Kirschler, Bluffton, superintendent of the administration department.

Irvin C. Brentlinger, Lima, and Rev. L. D. Hammond, Spencerville, were named as members of the advisory committee.

The executive committee will be obliged to get a secretary to take the place of I. C. Brentlinger, who now holds that office.

DRY CHIEFS OF FIVE STATES MEET MONDAY

WASHINGTON — Prohibition Commissioner Haynes will go to Columbus, Ohio, next Monday for a two day conference with federal and state prohibition officials of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Indiana and Michigan. On Tuesday he will address the Ohio legislature on the problems of prohibition enforcement.

Enforcement questions in general will be considered at the meeting of prohibition chiefs. Mr. Haynes said today that no particular significance attached to the conference which he declared was for the purpose of making a survey of conditions in the middle west.

RAILWAY ACCOUNTANTS ADDRESSED BY R. C. PERRY ON MACHINE BOOKKEEPING

The address by Robert C. Perry, chief clerk of the Terre Haute, Indianapolis, and Eastern Railway, Friday afternoon was the chief feature of the first day of the annual convention of the Central Electric Railway Accountants' association, which opened Friday morning at the Barr hotel.

Perry's address was on "General Accounting with the aid of Machines" and was heard by more than 100 members of the association. Members and their families will attend a banquet at the Barr hotel Friday night and, according to E. O. Reed, Lima, auditor of the Western Ohio, president of the association, speeches will be made by F. D. Carpenter, Lima, E. O. Reed, Lima, and A. J. White, Cincinnati. Saturday's sessions will consist of talks by A. N. Nixter, and A. W. Heath. Election of officers will be held Saturday afternoon.

MASONIC NOTICE
Special communication of Lima Lodge No. 205, F. A. M., Saturday evening convening at 7 o'clock. Work on Fellow Craft Degree. All members requested to be present. Visiting brethren welcome. Wallace Landis, secretary. Frank H. Smith, W. Master.

then everybody will be eating them. Get one taste of Perfection Wafers and sample "that sweet taste you know," and you will never be satisfied with any other kind. Ask for

P W CRACKERS

To be good, and appetizing, crackers must be kept dry and crisp, a difficult proposition sometimes, especially in damp weather. We have overcome this difficulty by supplying our dealers with an electrically heated display case that keeps them hot at all times and delivers the crackers to you as fresh as when they left our ovens. Look for the sign "Hot P W Crackers." Get a pound from your grocer, try them and you will agree with us that Perfection Wafers are "Perfection." Made only by

CHECK ON MURDER UP TO CONGRESS

U. S. Law Alone Can Stop Pistol-Toting, Police Say

GENERAL OPINION OF CHIEFS

Data on Weapon Question Secured From 48 States

Almost everywhere in the United States it is against the law—either state or city—to carry concealed on one's person a revolver or automatic pistol, favorite tools of the murderer.

Yet the murder rate in the United States has reached a point where one out of every 12,000 Americans is murdered every year. And in by far the greater number of these murders the revolver or pistol was the instrument of death.

If, then, the carrying of deadly weapons is unlawful why are they always to be found in the hip pockets of criminals and potential killers?

The Lima News thru NEA Service learned the answer in the most sweeping survey of the gun-toting question ever carried out, reaching into 48 states.

Investigators learned—

That there are as many different kinds of enforcement of the concealed weapons regulations as there are municipalities.

That while many communities are seeing the light and inflicting severe jail penalties on offenders, in others the gun-toter even can get his gun back upon payment of a small fine.

That police chiefs—scores were interviewed—believe the carrying of pistols will be eliminated only when a drastic federal law has been passed governing the sale of deadly weapons.

The Lima News yesterday told the results of its survey in its relation to the confusing mass of regulation—on non-regulation—of the sale of weapons.

Today it tells the revelations of

Thin? Run-down? Sure Way to Get Right Weight

Increase Your Red-Blood-Cells. That's the Sure Way! S. S. S. Builds Blood-Cells; This Means Strength!

Do you know why insurance companies refuse to give a great many men because they are underweight? Simply because to be underweight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus energy, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Hollow cheeks fill out. You stop being a calamity-brother. You inspire confidence. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. S. will build them. Ladies and gentlemen, a peppy, bony face doesn't make you look very important or pretty, does it? Take S. S. S. It contains only pure vegetable medicinal ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size being the more economical.

its inquiry into the carrying of concealed revolvers and pistols.

GENERALLY FORBIDDEN

This is forbidden practically throughout the nation, gun-toting being allowed only by peace officers, members of the military or naval establishments or the militia, or citizens who can prove their need of weapons.

But—in some localities this law is stringently enforced while in others it is winked at; in some localities it is punishable by a negligible fine, in others by stiff jail or prison sentences.

Judges in all parts of the country show a tendency to give jail sentences to gun-toters whom they have reason to suspect of criminal intent and to let off others with a light fine or total suspension of fine.

Fines of $15, $20 and $25 with rare jail sentences were found to be the common practice in Portland, Me., Sioux Falls, S. D., Denver, Colo., and Oklahoma City, Okla.

Leniency in dealing with gun-toters also is the vogue in Albuquerque, N. M., Cheyenne, Wyo., Des Moines, Ia., Lincoln, Neb., and St. Louis, Mo.

Higher fines—$50 to $100—and an occasional jail sentence of 30 to 90 days was found to be most common in all parts of Pennsylvania, in Boise, Idaho, where offenders also are asked to leave town, in Jacksonville, Fla., where the practice is to send second offenders to jail, in Cleveland, Baltimore, Charlotte, N. C., Seattle, Charleston, S. C., Milwaukee, Portland, Ore., and Boston.

MAXIMUM PENALTIES

It should be understood that state laws or municipal ordinances in all of these communities usually provide for much higher penalties, but the maximum penalties are rarely inflicted.

Montana levies a fine of $500 and sentences of from six months in jail to five years in the penitentiary. Arizona's maximum sentence is a $300 fine or 30 days in jail, while Texas levies from $100 to $200 or imprisonment from 30 days to a year.

Birmingham, Ala., complains that while police courts frequently impose heavy sentences, the higher courts almost always reverse the decision on appeal. Many Alabamians, upon payment of a $50 fine, even get their guns back from the authorities.

Rhode Island often imposes sentences of one year. The maximum sentence in Utah is $299 or six months' imprisonment.

they have curbed gun-toting appreciably by inflicting a mandatory prison sentence of six months.

The Delaware now inflicts a penalty as high as seven years in the penitentiary, there is now agitation under way to restore the whipping post to cure the wholesale carrying of concealed weapons.

Police officials are almost unanimous in the opinion that the concealed weapon can easily be dealt with if federal legislation regulating the sale of pistols and revolvers is passed.

Philip T. Smith, president of the International Association of Police Chiefs and chief of police of New Haven, Conn., says:

"Sale of weapons by mail forms our chief problem. To deal with this effectively we must have federal legislation."

Chief of Police Sverrins of Seattle believes even federal control is not enough—he would make regulation international.

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens
So Naturally Nobody

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is again
being used to keep their hair a good,
even color, which is quite genuine,
as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called
"Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair
after a few applications, it also produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance which is so at-

Super Values Are Bringing New Customers to "The Leader"

"Why is the Leader so BUSY these February days, when other stores are comparatively quiet?" asked a well known Lima woman yesterday.

We pointed in reply, to several bargain tables, containing $1.59 Sheets at $1.33 and 19c Percales at 13c.

She grasped the idea at once and then we further explained to her that similar bargains throughout the store were being offered each day in our special campaign to gain 5,000 New Customers during this month.

We will have easily gained these 5,000 New Customers before the month is up. Our values are irresistible.

"FREE OF WAR IN PEACE GARDEN"

Indian Author Suggests Plan to End World Clashes

NEW NATION LEAGUE IDEA

Urges Body Patterned After Old Iroquois Organization

In view of the present world situation, the question of whether a League of Nations is practical or not, the author of "The New Nation League" suggests a plan to end world clashes. The author, a native of the Iroquois Nation, suggests a plan to end world clashes. The author, a native of the Iroquois Nation, suggests a plan to end world clashes.

ALLAN S. Y. (Special)
Why do not the quarrelsome warring nations of the world make peace patterned after the sure and plan of the Iroquois Indians?

The tree of War stands in the garden of Peace. Money is the support of the world's war. The supporting roots of the tree of War are Jealousy, superstition, ambition and revenge.

What prevents world peace? Only one thing. The world's not yet civilized.

Let us translate into those modern terms the League of Nations that the Iroquois called "Sagoyewew" established 1,000 years ago. The world should have a League of Nations and America should be called upon to elect a chief of state like Adolphus the Obsequious who was the president of the Iroquois League of Nations. Let the United States be the Adolphus of 19.

The sponsor of the Iroquois League was Iroquois, the "mother of nations" to call out the history of the Queen of Italy be the Iroquois of 1923.

Under these directing hands, Germany should be forced to repudiate her internal and external debts. An international commission should be given the means to deal with the defeated central powers and to make them under and that justice is dispensed by an informed and intelligent jury of nations must be accepted. Let the nations return their property and issue no more unsecured currency. Let them have an international currency and a central bank in each country. Nothing would so induce and discourage war.

It should be done as the Iroquois did it. All nations were invited to sit beneath a metaphorical Tree of Peace after first casting their weapons into a bottomless cavern. Each nation sent as many spokes to the council as they desired, but each nation had only one vote—and the vote was invalid unless it was the unanimous sense of the delegates.

Nations that wavered upon the Iroquois League were broken up and direct league government established over them. Defeated nations were forced to repudiate their own internal debts and to make the reparations claim of the league their first business. There was no such nonsense as the "right of self-determination," for this meant disintegration and a relapse into savagery. Wampum was decreed the international medium of exchange. Peace was thus established and nations that did not like it were "gassed" by the effective means that made the Iroquois famous. The modern world might take a lesson from the Indians—who had too much sense to be the savages many people think they were.

What Happens When He Breaks the Apron Strings?

FORRY CRESS should have been a girl. But being a boy, he should not have been the Forry Cress his mother made him. She tied him firmly to her apron strings. She shaped his character as one shapes a lump of clay—gently, smoothly, lovingly. The wealthy widow wanted her boy to be "different." Well, he was. He wore lace caps and long curls until it became a town scandal. He was the only boy in town whose hands were never dirty. He was a thoroughly feminized little wretch—lonely, shy, resentful.

"His Mother's Apron Strings"

by Irvin S. Cobb

Is it wise to tie a child to a mother's apron strings? Should a child's natural impulses be repressed? Or, like a flower, should the child be allowed to "grow up?"

In a story filled with chuckles, Irvin S. Cobb deals with this all-important subject in a new way. Droll as always, he tells you the story of Forry—and of the mother who made a mess of his boyhood. In his own inimitable way he takes you back to childhood, lets you glimpse into the heart of the boy, and asks "What chance did the poor kid have?"

And in his madness he did some amazing things that made the town shake to its foundations!

"Splendid Liars"

By Jennie Harris Oliver

The author of "Till Interrupted Ghost" has written another story for you—this time a rollicking good tale of a most unusual middle-aged couple. The extraordinary things they do bring a smile to your lips, but somehow there's a tear behind the smile and you think of the Johns and Liz betis that you know.

FORGERY CHARGED TO BANKRUPT

Danner Signed Wife's Name to Note, Creditor Alleges

IN VAN WERT-CO PRISON

Property Being Sold to Satisfy Claims

Charles Danner, former Delphos plumber whose financial affairs are now in the hands of a bankruptcy trustee, is held in the Van Wert county jail on a charge of forging the name of his wife, Eleanor Danner, to a note for $32.

Charges were preferred by Jesse A. Carpenter, manager of the Manufacturers Supply company, Lima, principal creditor in the bankruptcy case. The forgery occurred previous to Danner going into bankruptcy, according to information from the Van Wert county clerk's office.

PAYMENT IS REFUSED

Carpenter tried to have the note cashed recently, it is alleged, and payment was refused.

Danner is held in default of $1,500 bond, fixed by Justice of the Peace Gilpin in Van Wert when he pleaded not guilty. He was bound over to the grand jury.

Danner's plumbing equipment in his former shop on Canal-st is now being sold piecemeal to satisfy claims of creditors.

His property was appraised at $900. R. L. Jauman, Delphos, was appointed trustee in bankruptcy by H. D. Grindle, referee.

Turn In Early, Get Soft Spot Tourists' Plan

"Early to bed, early to rise, makes one healthy, wealthy and wise," wrote the poet, "but he forgot," quoth John Wesley, Halcyon of Boston, Mass. "to add that the earliest to bed get the best places in most cases."

John Wesley is a knight of the road. For weeks he has been on the tick in vicinity of Delphos proving to a party who his abilities as a general repairman. Lately he has sought the comforts of the beds in the tramps' suite at Delphos city jail.

He rises in the morning from refreshing slumber and dreams of former opulence in old Beantown because he has observed advice of the poet.

Seven-thirty in the evening is the time of his retirement from toils of the day. But turning in several hours ahead of fellow knights he is in bed with the softest spots in the "suite."

Otherwise John Wesley is one of the 71 tourists who have been registered at Delphos headquarters during the past month.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS FINDING OF HORSE

Mystery surrounds the finding of a horse and buggy at the Fred Meyer farm, east of Delphos, on the Lincoln highway, Thursday night.

The outfit was brought to a Delphos livery barn by Patrolman Al Humphreys and efforts were made Friday to find the owner. The buggy is in poor condition.

DELPHOS SOCIETY

Mrs. Frances Jones, W. Fifth-st., will be hostess to the Tourist club Saturday evening.

The program for this meeting will be as follows: "Opinions of Anatolia France," Paul Geell, by Miss Ethel Hart; La Via en Fleur, by Mrs. George Walther; Book Review, "The Crime of Sylvester Bonnard," by Miss Mildred Jettlinghoff.

Three one-act plays are being prepared for the meeting of March 26.

Friday afternoon the Royal Daughters of the United Brethren church, met at the home of Mrs. William Emerick, S. Main-st.

Juniors and seniors of the Jefferson school, will give a theatre party Friday evening. Members of both classes will first go to the Capitol theater. From there they will go to school where games, music and dancing will be enjoyed.

Luncheon will be served later in the evening.

Women's Home and Foreign Mission Society, Presbyterian church, met at 230 Friday afternoon in the church.

W. B. A. Club Girls meeting was postponed by their hostess, Miss Freda Wiley, S. Canal-st, because of the death of Mrs. Wiley's sister.

Members of the 1917 Sewing club, spent a very delightful afternoon Thursday at the home of Mrs. Martin Shenk, W. Sixth-st.

The fore part of the afternoon was spent in sewing. Mrs. Frank Geier received first prize in a contest and Mrs. John Bryan was consoling.

The decorations of the home was carried out in the George Washington theme. A delightful luncheon was served by the hostess.

Guests present at this meeting were Mrs. Dano Ridenout, Miss Grace Heartorn, Mrs. Mox and Mrs. Oscar Miller.

The next meeting will be in two weeks but it has not been decided who will be the hostess.

LIMA PRIEST SPEAKS AT MISSION SERVICES

Rev. James Clark of St. Gerard's parish, Lima, delivered the sermon Thursday evening at St. John's church, Delphos, during mission services for women. He assisted Fathers Joseph A. Funk and Alfred Muntz, Redemptorist Fathers who opened the mission Sunday.

Mission services for women will close Sunday at 3 p. m. Dedication services will be offered Sunday night in honor of the Virgin Mary. Mission for men will open Sunday at 7:15 p. m.

DELPHOS CHORAL SOCIETY MAY BE ORGANIZED SOON

Efforts will probably be made to effect permanent organization of the Delphos choral society which participated Thursday in the Lima city-wide under leadership of J. A. Brees, music director of public schools. Participation in civic gatherings, particularly those anticipated by the opening of the new city park next summer, is the aim.

The choral society is fostered by the Delphos Kiwanis club and is composed of 50 voices. Rehearsals were held for a month previous to the city-wide.

DELPHOS CAGERS TAKE SNAPPY PRACTICE FOR CONTESTS NEXT WEEK

Minus the presence of Art Davey, guard, who is incapacitated by an injury to his right hand, members of the Delphos St. John's cage quintet went thru a most strenuous practice session Thursday night.

It was the first time they were on the floor since Friday night, when the team met defeat at Ada.

Practice will be held regularly to fit the cagers for a game Wednesday night with Lima St. John's in Lima. This game was postponed from February 20.

No decision has been made regarding presence of the squad at the Bluffton tournament March 2. Efforts are being made to book Norwalk for a set to with the Blue and Gold March 9. On March 16 St. John's will meet its real foe—Ottawa, which dropped a half-raising game to Delphos recently and has been aching for revenge ever since.

DEBATE ON IMMIGRATION FEATURES SCHOOL PROGRAM

Restriction of immigration of the United States was the subject of a debate Friday afternoon at Jefferson high school. Delphos, when N. Knepper, Paul Elcho and Avonelle Davies had the affirmative of the question, "Resolved, That immigration to the United States should be prohibited for two years," and Elaine Liber, Byron Cochran and Mary Louth the negative.

The debate was the principal feature of a freshmen program. Two plays, "Mrs. Doan Spriggs" and "The Halfback's Interference," were presented in addition to music and reading of essays.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT ADOPTED BY DELPHOS F.O.E.

Resolutions of condolence were adopted Thursday night at a special meeting of Delphos aerie, F. O. Eagles, for J. M. Thatcher, first president of the order in Delphos and a charter member. A copy was given Thatcher's son Robert, his sole surviving immediate relative.

The Eagles will meet Sunday at 1 p. m. and proceed in autos to the Thatcher home on W. Third-st, where funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m. by Rev. W. A. Deaton, Methodist minister.

ATTEND INITIATION Robert Edwards, Thomas Cook and T. B. Waggoner, Delphos Mills, attended an initiation, dinner and musical given by Van Wert lodge Thursday. Two candidates were initiated in the afternoon.

BANK WRECKAGE STORY AMAZES

Operations Charged to Joseph B. Marcino Revealed

CONFESSES IN LETTER

Note's Contents Made Public by Father-in-law

(CHICAGO — United Press) — Further details of the amazing career of Joseph B. Marcino, alleged bank wrecker, whose shenanigans were reported in excess of $500,000, were revealed today, as federal officials questioned relatives and friends here.

In a two page letter to his father-in-law, Abraham Goldman, the 25-year-old financier, admitted his complicity in the failures of several banks and hinted he would commit suicide. The letter was made public by attorneys for Goldman.

Twelve years ago, Marcino came to the United States from Italy. He became a barber in the old Lombard Hotel here and from his customers learned rudiments of high finance.

QUITS BARBER TRADE

While still in his teens, Marcino left the barber trade and became first an insurance solicitor and then a banker.

Four years ago, he eloped and married Goldman's daughter, Cecelia. "I warned my girl not to marry him," Goldman told authorities.

"But after they eloped, I could only make the best of it. I helped him many times and tried to keep him out of trouble."

Marcino's real name is Balata, but he has used his middle name — Marcino — for several years. His parents run a bakery here. They cannot speak English and were confused when an attempt to explain their son's predicament was made to them.

VENTURES PROBED

Bank examiners accused Marcino of wrecking three financial institutions and declare he was interested in many other ventures which are under investigation.

The alleged shortages against the young "financier" are:

The Niagara Insurance Company of Buffalo, $100,000.

The First National Bank of Warren, Mass., $213,000.

The Mechanics and Merchants Bank, Philadelphia, $120,000.

Goldman told federal agents that he advanced the money to save his son-in-law after his alleged operations in California. During this period, Marcino was active in banks in San Pedro, Beaumont, Venice, Babbington and Paris, Calif. He later bought banks in Fairmont, Ind., Cedar Point, Ill., and Weyauwega, Wis.

SULPHUR CLEARS ROUGH, RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Montho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples and ring worm.

It seldom fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles Montho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

SWALLOWS ACID

Don Rohe Takes Deadly Poison By Mistake

Donald Rohe, 30 baseball player and former employee of the police department, received a badly burned throat shortly after 2 a. m. Friday, when he mistook a bottle of carbolic acid for cough medicine. He makes his home with his uncle, John Guinan, 728 N. Metcalf-st.

Rohe was troubled with a bad cough during the night and went to the bath room to obtain the cough medicine. He did not turn on a light and by mistake picked up a bottle containing carbolic acid.

After he had taken a swallow of the deadly poison, speech left him and he staggered into his uncle's room, where he sank unconscious to the floor.

A physician and ambulance crew were summoned and a stomach pump was applied.

Attending physician reported him to be entirely out of danger Friday. During the summer months, Rohe plays professional baseball, having just signed a contract for the coming year with a team at Davenport, Ia.

ARE YOU THE WOMAN YOU WERE MEANT TO BE?

Every woman was meant to be healthy, happy, and fill her sphere in life to the best of her ability; but, alas, how few have the health or physical endurance to live up to their ideals! Over-ambitious, many of them develop nervousness, irritability, headaches, backaches, irregularities, and often more serious ailments which retard their progress in life. Women in this condition should turn to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a root and herb medicine which has been proven to benefit 98 out of every 100 women who try it. Let Lydia E. ## DEMOCRATS SEEK CASH, HARMONY

Party Leaders Already at Work on 1924 Campaign

MANY CANDIDATES IN FIELD

McAdoo Heads List of Aspirants For Nomination

(BY LAWRENCE MARTIN)

WASHINGTON — (United Press) The Democratic national organization is already hard at work on the 1924 presidential and congressional campaign.

Into every state has gone the word that a two-fold campaign must be begun at once to consolidate and increase the gains registered in the 1922 congressional election, so that in 1924 the Democrats will regain control of the government. This double campaign will be aimed to secure:

1—Money.

2—Harmony.

Money is put first, because democratic leaders realize it will be comparatively much easier to get than the party harmony they so greatly desire, but do not exactly know how to achieve, under the present order of things. It is put first also because leaders realize that without it, they will be powerless in such a fight as is looming a little more than a year from now.

LEADERS GET BUSY

Discussion of ways and means has already taken place here between Cordell Hull, chairman of the democratic national committee, and Harrison Nesbit, chief financial adviser of the party chiefs. Hull will from now on make a number of trips into various sections, partly to discuss financial matters and partly to talk organization, party spirit and the promotion of party harmony.

Democratic leaders, while they express in public confidence of complete unity in 1924, just as the Republicans do, are, among themselves, fully cognizant of the danger to themselves in the existing party disunion. This grows out of the presidential aspirations, real or reputed, of various men.

These various presidential candidates are not themselves responsible for the lack of harmony. But some of their followers are. They are constantly alert to prevent any adherent of another candidate, real or potential, from getting an advantage within the party. There is constant pulling and hauling, trivial in itself, and not in any visible way of affecting the actual leadership of the party as centered in Chairman Hull and his chief lieutenants. But it is visible when the national committee itself gets together.

The fight for democratic leadership of the senate is one evidence of this. That fight is virtually over, for Senator Joe Robinson of Arkansas has clear sailing for the place, but that fact does not mean that senate democrats are united.

Robinson will win, unless all pledges given him are false, but that will not give him the united backing of the democrats in the new senate, any more than Senator Underwood had it, or Senator Hitchcock before him.

MANY CANDIDATES

While the Republican leaders have served notice that there is to be no scrambling in their convention for the nomination, the next democratic convention promises, at this distance, to be as scrappy a conclave as was the last one, when a whole flock of candidates hung on and on, refusing to let go of their votes. McAdoo, Smith, New York, Underwood, for whom a real fight probably will be made; John W. Davis, former Ambassador to Great Britain; former Justice Clarke, of Ohio; Senator Pomerene, Ohio, and Cox, the unsuccessful nominee in 1920, are all listed.

From which it will readily appear even to the most casual observer that the big Democratic problem is getting together.

Best Cough Mixture

Is Home Made

Acts With Speed—Loosens the Phlegm—Stops the Irritation and Coughing Closes

Five for Chest Colds Too and Is Cheaply Made at Home

When you can make, in two minutes, a world beating remedy that acts directly on the membrane and often over-night causes stubborn coughs and even hard chest colds to disappear, why trifling with things that will probably disappoint?

Flowing and snuffling and also soreness of the mucous membrane go and you will feel fine in almost no time.

Just get one ounce of Parment (double strength) add to it a little sugar and enough hot water to make a half pint and you've got an inexpensive remedy better than you can buy ready mixed.

Its soothing, healing action on the membrane is the reason so many people use it for Catarrh and acute nasal colds.—Adv.

Operation Not Successful

"16 years ago I was operated for appendicitis and later operated again for gall stones. Neither did me any good and I suffered all kinds of torture since. Five years ago I took May's Wonderful Remedy and have felt no symptoms of pain since. All stomach sufferers should take it." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Hunter's 3 drug stores and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

UNIQUE IN PERSONALITY

Voluntarily Quits After 30 Years
in Congress

(By FRAZER EDWARDS)

WASHINGTON, — (United Press) — Most senators' places are filled—many to overflowing—by their successors. Some senators are merely succeeded.

Of the latter and much limited class, John Sharp Williams, senator from Mississippi, leads the list of those leaving the Senate on March 4.

Without slighting his successor, it can be said that John Sharp Williams will leave a vacant place in the Senate. He is an "institution." Anybody else will have as much room in his shoes as a bat has in a church.

John Sharp is unique. He is a "black swan" in a flock of "lame ducks." He is quitting the Senate voluntarily.

Casting aside the coveted toga unless "called" by the people or death is rare enough, but his reason for retiring is wholly original. In his own words, John Sharp "would rather be a yellow dog and bay at the moon than a United States Senator."

30 YEARS IN CONGRESS

His 30 years in Congress—13 in the House and 12 in the Senate—have been crammed with big events, but Williams whimsically insists that his biggest was the day he decided to quit. At that he gives the little cackle that goes for a laugh and winks a rosy blue eye.

To say his passing from public life ends an era in American politics is not bunk. That once self-renewing institution—Southern statesmen—has reached the end of its line. John Sharp is the last and there is none to take his place.

A child of the ante-bellum generation—the son of a Confederate colonel, who was killed at Shiloh—yet Williams never "waved the bloody shirt" or gave the Rebel yell when the band struck up "Dixie." He left that to the "professional Southerner." He was contented to be a Democrat, "a damn fool Mississippi Democrat, if you please," but independent as the proverbial hog on ice.

John Sharp was near the end of the line when good looks were passed out. Undersized and almost insignificant, he looks as if he dressed in the dark for the role of "common people." But when he goes into action, wielding the keenest blade in debate that Congress has witnessed in a generation, he becomes the "Yazoo Giant."

MASTER OF PROSE

As he pours out prose poetry that charms the ear, or raps incisive logic to compel the intellect, you realize why he was a real Presidential possibility in 1904 and 1908. Despite his far southern residence, he gave up the Democratic leadership in the House and went to the Senate just in time to miss the Speakership that went to Champ Clark. But he may solace himself with escaping the disappointment of defeat for the Presidential nomination in 1912, which also went to Champ Clark.

John Sharp spent the first half of his life going to school—he graduated, not merely "went through" five great universities—and the last half in public life. Now he is nearing three score and ten. He has had enough of honors and too much of hokum and he feels entitled to a rest.

What a book he could write if he would listen to the blandishments of publishers! But down on his plantation on the "star route" near Yazoo City, where he will retire, "beyond trying to reestablish my reputation as a gentleman," he says his literary efforts will be confined to "keeping books" for his son John who runs the place. He wants to be free to emulate the dandy who "sometimes acts and thinks and some times jest sets."

John Sharp is a convincing speaker. When he says in that musical cadence, "Mississippi is a sweet old State," you just know it is. It makes you want to go down there with John Sharp and sit on the shady front gallery where you can smell the mint patch and listen to the mocking birds and let the world slide by.

OPEN LETTERS

To the City Commish and Manager Bingham

BOYS: Every city you visit, every newspaper in any city you go, wants wider streets. Motor-driven vehicles are increasing so rapidly that the street line in some cities is being moved back wherever possible. I suggest in any improvements especially in the business section, that that widening be considered. West-st on its next paving could easily be so treated. Parking is only part of it, you must anticipate actual traffic.

LIMA BEANE

To F. E. Harman

DEAR FRANK: See you have been chosen chairman of the committee to build a city auditorium. I know it has long been a cherished dream that there be some auditorium, where great musical events could be held. Doesn't this new prospect make it possible to incorporate that old dream into the idea? If seeking permanency, the musical side of Lima should not be neglected.

LIMA BEANE

To Everybody, Everyday

DEAR FRIENDS: Take it from me, this is going to be the greatest money-making year since the war. Almost everybody is going to make money in 1923, if they get up and dust. Laying is not so high, when coal isn't necessary. And I want you, my friends, to know that this is your year. Buy a piece of real estate, on a shoe-string and watch it work for you. Lima is going to add a clean 5,000 people this year to her population. Let that 5,000 work for you. Try and please me by saving ten per cent of your wage or income, then invest it in my own real estate. It may be secondary inflation, and it may be politics, and it may be Wall-st, but we are in a bull business period, so recognize it and go with it, not against it.

LIMA BEANE

To Home Builders

DEAR BOOSTERS: If the little bird that flew into my window is accurate in arithmetic, you can't build too many houses in Lima this spring and summer. The bird told me there were only 41 vacant places in the whole town, and over half of these were almost impossible for decent living. I think anybody who will associate with some practical builder, can make more money and do the city more good by building houses, than buying the most highly touted stocks.

LIMA BEANE

To George Washington

DEAR GEORGE: While the nation was observing your birthday yesterday, I wondered if you ever look down upon this troubled sphere, and if you do what your feelings must be.

I would that it were possible for you to set the folks right on the matter upon which many have been harping for the last three years—your alleged statement concerning "entangling alliances." I know it would be a rude shock to many of the politicians if you could do this, but it would prevent the spreading of a lot of bunk. Many of them would regard you as a back number if you were to come among us, but I'm convinced you could give most of 'em cards and spades and then lay 'em in the shade on much of their "statesmanship."

LIMA BEANE

To E. A. Williams

DEAR ED: Haven't seen you for a long time, but some friends of mine tell me the Garford is going big again. Motor trucks are wearing out, they tell me, and must be replaced. Business the country over is hitting such a pace, that it will require hundreds of new trucks to aid in moving it. Congrats, Eddie; and here's a hope 1923 will break wartime production records at your plant.

LIMA BEANE

To Ohio Legislators

DEAR BOYS: Are you trying to establish a record for burlesque? I am gaining the impression from press accounts of your doings that most of your work is a joke and that there must be a contest on to determine who can present the most stupid measure.

The people of Ohio sent you to Columbus to take care of their interests, not to play house. Please bear this in mind.

LIMA BEANE

To Auto Club Officials

MY FRIENDS: Much pleased indeed am I that you have again broken all records in the matter of obtaining memberships in your fine organization. You are doing a great work and I am glad owners of automobiles are recognizing it.

LIMA BEANE

To Coal Miners and Operators

FRIENDS: It has been announced that there is little possibility of a mine strike this year. I'm more that pleased at this news. But one thing is worrying me. Recently a number of serious disasters have snuffed out the lives of a number of men who were engaged in mining coal. Since you have been able to agree on other matters, why not devote your attention to preventing such terrible deaths hundreds of feet beneath the ground?

LIMA BEANE

The Most Important Thing

DEAR REFORMERS: The most important thing in the world is what the speaker is boosting. I hear movement upon movements, and each time I am convinced that the last one I heard is the most important and really will save the world. I don't know what for. Yet to me about the most important thing in the world, is one of the oldest teaching and it is all written in the time-honored Golden Rule. The isms and uplifts come and go, but doing unto others as ye would, can go on for ever and aye.

I have had it handed to me pretty hard at times, but I just smile and wait for the world to go by. And as it comes back after its orgy it has forgotten all about the salvation that was so necessary the year before. Ninety per cent of the "deep deploring and viewing with alarm," as heard from reformers, can be coppered. Minding one's own business will do more good in the ninety and nine cases, than does charity or philanthropy. And that's that.

LIMA BEANE

'ROUND LIMA HOUR BY HOUR

WITH APOLOGIES

BY OH. OH. JACKENREI
A Page from the Diary of an Antiquated Reporter: (COCOANUT GROVE, PALM BEACH) — Lay late abed, and into a bike chair for the Casino. Eleven to twelve the bathing hour, in both ocean and swimming pool. Beach costumes here (for actual work in the water) are more modest than Miami, and carry shoes and stockings with them. There were no bare legs, except on men. As almost every maid or matron you see is in the millionaire class, they could easily wear what they will. Simplicity, nevertheless, marks Palm Beach attire. The pools are more used than the ocean, but the sands do more business than either. It is the hour for a good sun-bath, a cigarette as you lie flat and relaxed, basking yourself with hot sand. Every one minds his or her own business, and seemingly don't give an iota what's doing in the next pasture.

Tea in Coconut Grove, at the Royal Poinciana hotel. Gathering place of the day. Parties under greates, bright umbrellas shading a table if the vagaries of Old Sol should peep thru the palms. Here is New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Chicago, Boston—polo, tennis, bathing, golf, fishing, sailing, cards, are over for the day. Here, every one looks at every one else. Men are in blue or darkcloth sack coats, then shirts, white flannels and all-white or two-colored foot-wear. With the inevitable stick.

Cocoanut Grove presents the first true offering of millinery. One of the very pretty ones was of silk straw. I also saw them both in tulle-trimmed things and the fancy chepeau. Trimmed, often, with only a band of the same straw. Very cachet, methot. Then the brilliant, gay red hats, hundreds of them, with a dash to match something else in the ensemble. Hats this spring are very large for dress, flower decked, or with a merry tantalizing feather stuck just here, coquettishly flitting with a well-groomed ear. Green hats vie with the red, and the jade is very becoming to the gloomy blond or Titan-hayred maid.

One dominant thing, necessary stands out pre-eminent. The smartly gowned woman wears her dresses LONG. Down around her feet, and never shorter than the ankle. Even sports clothes and tailored suits are not short. Yes, you see short dresses, but lean over her bobbed hayre and you learn why as she registers. She's from Podunk or Oskosh. But I saw no short dresses, as we have known them. Everything in my lady's wardrobe as displayed in Miami, Palm Beach, or at the Casino in Havana, is long. Tourists, oh cert. But the woman who wears her clothes and knows it, ah no, ma cherie. Let out the hem. And then again, when you think it too long

The shoes are as bright as the hats, and the gay skirts. On a good-looking young thing, (carrying too much gin, however). I saw a pair of bright red, on another, suede with red heels, the hose white, with red clocks, very stunning. And to top it, a red jacket, and a huge red hat crowning her Little Highness. Green shoes are also seen, and fair white kids with straps, for the thin gown. The satin slipper is both plain and broad, accompanied by buckles, and the ornate silver evening slipper is often edged with a narrow band of embroidery to match the gown.

And this last, girls. Go buy a smart to match your hat, and a small, helpless looking bag of the shade and material of both. Which should put me in a class with Tapee, Lanvin, Lrte or Jenny

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY

GET YOUR IODINE
Dr. Lavery R. Hayhurst, professor of hygiene, Ohio State university, has called attention to the fact that practically all salt used in the United States for dietary consumption is obtained from inland sources by the evaporation of brines which for the most part are inherently free of iodine. Modern processes of preparing and purifying salt for table use free it of all traces of iodine. And it seems that a certain amount of iodine, in one form or another, is essential for health. If we do not obtain it in or with our salt we must acquire it from some other source.

The chief source of iodine in commerce is Chile salt peter. Sea water, sea weed or plants and all sea fish or sea food contain iodine. The soil and water of districts far inland are poor in iodine because the iodine of nature occurs in the form of salts (iodides) which are usually very soluble, hence rapidly dissolved out of the soil and carried down to the sea in the water. How much iodine an adult needs daily or yearly is a question but students of the subject estimate that an ounce a year is required by the average adult.

The evils which result from lack of sufficient iodine are too many to refer to in a limited space. Professor Hayhurst suggests that the use of sea water in place of common salt as a condiment would solve the iodine deficiency problem. This would be practicable for persons living near the sea. He further suggests that other elements or constituents of sea salt are needed in the economy of man and animals. For instance, may not the bromine present in sea water or natural sea salt play a part in preventing conditions of nervous excitement?

Dr. Adoniram J. Quimby of New York finds that hardening of the arteries and the associated troubles of cardiovascular disease are less frequent among seafaring men, notwithstanding their hard life; he thinks this may be due to their indulgence in sea food. He suggests that the invigorating effect of sea air may be due to the iodine in it. He regards iodine as a valuable preventive of the premature aging which overtakes those who work for years with X-ray. Dr. Quimby advocates the daily consumption of minute quantities of a tincture of iodine as a preventive of arteriosclerosis and high blood pressure. He considers such use of iodine distinctly tonic and declares that it increases exuberance of spirit and ambition. He thinks that some athletes go stale because their ration lacks sufficient iodine; he attributes to this regular use of exceedingly minute doses of iodine a corrective influence on the circulation, especially when the individual has cold hands and cold feet and a cold skin, be it dry or moist. A suitable iodine ration, according to Dr. Quimby, will sometimes put the worn or exhausted business man back in condition, even when a vacation is of little value.

Iodine, in the right quantity as a daily ration, unquestionably stimulates the general metabolism of life process.

Dr. Quimby prefers a modification of the standard tincture of iodine, made up as follows:
Iodine crystals . . . 30 (thirty) grains
Ammonium iodide . . . (twenty) grains
Glycerin . . . 1-2 (one-half ounce)
To be placed in an amber glass stops the growth—Miss G. F. Answer—Singeing will not increase the growth of hair but it tends to make the hair have a better color. You are making a serious mistake which many young women make and regret later, by attempting to destroy or remove the fine down which covers every woman's skin. No matter what depilatory you use, every chemical or actual which stimulates the growth of the fine hair, and makes them coarser. A good beauty rule in this matter is, don't start anything you never can finish.

A TRUE FRIEND

He lets me buy him dinner,
And never buys for me,
My purse grows flatter, thinner,
When in his company.
My money he annexes
By various hooks and crooks,
But, though my soul he vexes,
He never borrows books!

His humor makes me weary,
His talk is most inane,
His tales are old and dreary,
And trying to the brain;
No matter how I view him,
I do not like his looks,
But still I cotton to him—
He never borrows books!

What though he's far from moral
With faults I can't defend,
I shall not ever quarrel
With such a precious friend,
And should he from a cell come,
A criminal gadzooks,
I still should bid him welcome—
He never borrows books!

EISTEDDFOD HERE IS SUCCESS

Contestants From 15 Cities and Towns Participate

MANY PRIZES ARE AWARDED

Event Under Auspices of Trinity Church Choir

Contestants from 15 cities and towns in northwestern Ohio competed for prize money offered in the Lima Eisteddfod, staged at Memorial hall Thursday. The festival was held under auspices of Trinity M. E. church choir and was the most successful ever held during the 36 years period the Welsh event has been held here.

Prizes were offered for the best solos, duets and choruses. Singers from schools, churches and musical organizations appeared in three distinct groups.

D. A. Clippinger, Chicago, and R. W. Roberts, Columbus, acted as judges of the singing contests. The Rev. William Surdival, of Middletown, acted as conductor.

Children from Garfield, McKinley, Longfellow and Emerson schools, led by Helen Bowers, won the $25 first prize for the children's chorus. Franklin and Faure schools, Margaret Gregg, leader, won second prize, $10.

PRIZES AWARDED

Prizes for the afternoon contests were won as follows:

Van Wert, mixed quartet, $20; Dorothy Stolzenbach, Lima, piano solo, $10; Thomas Williams, Gomer, solo for best voice under 20 years, $10; Amee Roberts and Helen Bowers, Lima, soprano and contralto duet, $12; Ladies chorus, won by Van Wert, Owen Roberts, director, $50; J. A. Breese, Venedocia, tenor solo, $10; Dayton Amphions, male quartet, prize $20; Gomer and Van Wert choirs, tied for best church organization, prize $40.

The evening contests were awarded to Helen Bowers, Lima, contralto solo prize $10; Alfred Breese, Delphos, tenor duet, prize $12; Van Wert ladies' quartet, led by May Wassenberg, best women's quartet, prize $20; Lima mixed chorus, R. B. Mikosell, leader, singing "Babylon's Waste," won the $100 prize offered. Lima male chorus under direction of May Wassenberg, captured the $50 prize, and "Spartan Heroes." A $10 prize for the best baritone solo went to Hayden Evans, of Beaufort.

VALENTINO LOSES JOB WHEN HE DEMANDS MORE MONEY AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO — Rodolph Valentino, "sheik of the movies," lost his job here today, despite the adoration of flocks of Shebas.

Valentino has been packing 'em in at the Trianon with a dancing act for the past week. Hundreds of flappers were turned away and Valentino appeared before Andrew Karzas, manager, and demanded that his salary be doubled.

"They're crazy about me," Valentino told Karzas. "The girls are coming from all over the city to see me. Somebody has got to pay for it."

Karzas thought differently. "He filled the place with flappers," he said. "I gave him all the proceeds. When he asked for more, we called it quits."

The next public appearance of Valentino is now scheduled as his second marriage to Winifred Hudnut, his dancing partner, here on March 5.

POLING ENTERTAINS CITY OFFICIALS AT DINNER

Dr. J. B. Poling health commissioner, gave his annual Washington's Birthday dinner Thursday night to city officials, members of the city commission, and heads of civic organizations. For several years, Dr. Poling has made the dinner at his home, 730 W. Market-st., an annual affair, at which he gives the report to the health board.

The report rendered Thursday night showed that while more than 200 cases of influenza had been reported to the board, the number of cases of contagious illness was very low.

Those who attended the dinner were: Mayor Harold Cunningham, City Manager Bingham, City Commissioners Earl Rohn, E. E. Jones and H. L. Beckenridge; Charles C. Stolzenbach, E. W. Mosier and Walter Calvert of the health board; George Eckert and James E. Morton of the Board of Commerce; and Tom Pearmar and I. W. Maxwell of the Y. M. C. A.

Alkali in Soap Bad For the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully. If you want to keep your hair looking its best. Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonful of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub the Mulsified in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy. It is very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—Adv.

THE members of the Ways and Means Committee of the Woman's Board of the City Hospital, were the luncheon guests of Mrs. Charles Killen, Thursday, at the Lima club. Following the luncheon, a regular business meeting of the committee was held. The members of the Ways and Means committee will be in charge of a benefit party, to be given March the third, at the Moose Hall, for the benefit of the City Hospital. There will be tables for those who desire to play bridge, tables for the devotees of euchre and a social time planned for the women who prefer to bring their needle-work. Every one realizes the needs of the City hospital and it is hoped that the women will respond and plan to attend the affair. Mrs. Charles Killen is chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, Mrs. E. G. Wendock is president and Mrs. Harry Taylor is secretary of the Woman's Board of the City Hospital.

Members of the committee who are planning the party are Mrs. W. G. Graham, Mrs. J. E. Grosjean, Mrs. Lawrence Townsend, Mrs. R. B. Tolan, Mrs. Chas. Hesselman, Mrs. Theodore Michael, Mrs. Robert Stein and Mrs. Killen.

The annual dinner-dance, given by the Lima Rotary club in honor of the ladies, will be held Monday night, at the Elks home. Dinner will be served at 6:15 o'clock and dancing will follow.

Fred Dorles is chairman of the entertainment committee and has announced that Rubinsky's Orchestra of Toledo, will play during the dinner and also for the dancing.

Mrs. Carl Crites, W. High-st., entertained the members of the Friday Luncheon Bridge club, at her home, Friday. Three tables were filled for play, following the luncheon at 1 o'clock.

Miss Julia W. Sulder, Cincinnati and Audrey L. Lyons, Blanchester, Kentucky, are the week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Schodine, W. High-st.

Mrs. J. H. Myers, 8 Scott-st., entertained the Coterie club, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Spencer Biddle was the only guest. The afternoon was spent socially and two contests were held, in which Mrs. Lester May and Mrs. R. D. Chamberlain were successful. Delicious refreshments were served.

The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Frank Nelson, Grove-av.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: I HAVE come to you for advice. I have been going with a boy about five years my senior for over two years. I like him, but my parents will not permit me to bring him to the house. They want me to give him up but that would be impossible. They don't want me to marry him because he has the rheumatism. He has given up drinking for me and has always treated me very well. What would you do—give up your parents or the man you love?

X. Y. Z.
SURELY your parents have other reasons for disliking this young man. One would hardly jeopardize him because of his rheumatism. Have a serious talk with your parents, find out what their objections are. Tell them of your love for him and his for you.

Dear Miss Smart: What should a person do to remove fat from various parts of the body? I am a young girl of 15 and 17 to go with boys?

What materials will the summer dresses be made of and what styles will be worn most? Will organdie be worn?

THANK YOU
Exercise is the best thing to do to reduce. Take exercises daily, especially the parts of the body which you wish to reduce.

Yes. French voiles, dotted swiss, organdie and crepes will be worn. The dresses will be long, carrying out the long line effect. Sport clothes will be worn a great deal and, as last summer, sweaters and skirts will be seen often. Yes, organdie will be worn.

Dear Miss Smart: Will you please tell me the meaning of these names: Thelma, Howard, Mildred, William, Marian and Abigail? Is a fifteen year-old girl young for being a sophomore?

T. E. M.
I can find neither the meaning of Howard nor Thelma. Mildred means "mild threatener"; William, defense or protector; Marian, star of the sea; and Abigail, my father's joy.

MEDIUM BROWN HAIR Looks best of all after a Golden Gilt Shampoo.

THE GREEN-EYED ACCOMPLICE

BY E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

Copyright, 1922, by E. Phillips Oppenheim

BEGIN HERE TODAY
SIR NORMAN GREYES, formerly of Scotland Yard, joins the chase of MICHAEL SAYERS, famous criminal. Sayers, masquerading as Thomas Pugsley, who sends a police inspector to arrest Sayers on the street. Sayers shoots the inspector and escapes. Returning to his home, Michael questions his maid, JANET SOALE. Later at the golf club he finds Greyes crouched in the grass.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
Sir Norman Greyes' Side
I resigned my position at Scotland Yard for two reasons. First, as a protest against an act of gross injustice which, although it did not affect me personally, was still bitterly resented by the majority of my fellow-workers, and secondly because, through the unexpected death of a distant relative, I succeeded to a baronetcy and a sufficient income.

I spent the best part of three years in travel, nearly half of which time I was in the United States. On my return to London I found myself, much against my will, hankering after my old profession. It was very clear to me that my old depart-dead at his post. No trace of even a single article of this jewelry had ever been discovered. The second crime was the robbery of a number of bonds from a messenger in a railway carriage on the London, Chatham, and Dover line. The messenger was also shot, but recovered after six months' nursing, although he could never give any coherent account of what had happened to him. The bonds were disposed of in South America. The third was the robbery from Lord Wenderley's house in Park Lane.

There were other crimes which I thought might be connected with these, but these three, for various reasons, became linked together in my mind as the outcome of one man's planning. I set myself the task of discovering this one man, and the day came at last when I really believed that I was in a position to lay my hand upon him. There is no necessity to detail the evidence which pointed to this man. It is enough to say that after watching him for three weeks, I became convinced that a man of the name of Thomas Pugsley, carrying on business in Bermondsey as a leather broker, and living apparently the most respectable of lives at Brixton, was in some measure connected with these crimes.

I discovered that Pugsley's leather-broking business was prosecuted without energy or attention, that his frequent absences from London were not in neighborhoods where his wares could be pushed, and that he was often away for a month at a time, with his whereabouts unknown even to his landlady. The latter was a highly respectable woman at whose house he had lived for the last two years and who, I honestly believe, was ignorant of her lodger's antecedents, habits, and business. By taking rooms in the neighborhood, I easily discovered all that she knew and one or two circumstances which lent color to my suspicions. I placed these before Rimmington, and it was decided to make an arrest.

There were three crimes which I became convinced had been committed by the same hand. The first was the great robbery of jewels from Messrs. Benson & Watts' establishment in Regent Street, and the murder of the watchman, who was shot

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS—HAIL, THE LITTLE MOVIE STARS!—By BLOSSER

A more clumsy piece of business than this intended arrest was never planned or carried into effect. The Inspector placed in charge of the affair by Rimmington, and his two subordinates, arrived at Brixton an hour later than the time fixed upon, accosted Pugsley in the street, and were very soon made aware of the class of person with whom they had to deal. Before the Inspector could get out half a dozen words, he was lying on the pavement with a bullet thru his shoulder. His companion dragged him to the pavement and set him up against the railings. Then they turned to look for Pugsley. There was not a trace of him to be discovered anywhere.

The amazing skill and cunning of the man was amply demonstrated on that morning. By some extraordinary means he seemed to disappear from the face of the earth. The morning which witnessed, however, the shooting of the Inspector and the remarkable disappearance of the man in whom I was so deeply interested, was memorable so far as I was concerned, for another noteworthy incident. Absolutely disgusted with the result of my six months' labors, I determined to wipe the whole thing from my memory, and traveled down to Woking with the intention of playing a round of golf. I was introduced by the secretary to a resident of the place, whose name was James Stanfield, and we had a round which ranks amongst the best I ever played in my life.

Stanfield was a silent but by no means a gloomy person. He appeared to be about forty years of age and an absolute golf fanatic. He played every shot with the most judicious care, but I must confess with also the most wonderful precision. His drives were never long, but they were long enough for him to escape trouble, and in the approximate eighty shots which he took to complete the course, I can not remember one that was in any way limited or fumbled. He beat me at the seventeenth hole, and it was while we stood together upon the eighteenth tee that the incident happened which was to bring still more excitement into the day.

On our right was a small plantation of shrubs thru which wound the path which my partner pointed out to me as leading to his house. Our attention was attracted by the continued barking of a small dog which had wandered from the adjacent footpath. I had the curiosity to a step or two into the shrubbery to see what was the trouble. My companion, however, who was a little on my left, was the first to discover the cause of the dog's excitement. At a little cry from him I hurried to his side. Stretched upon his back, with extended arms, and a small blue hole in his forehead, we found the body of a man. He was dead but still warm, and by an extraordinary chance I at once recognized him. He was one of the two plain-clothes policemen whom I had seen in Woolleton Road that morning, killed in his attempt to arrest the man who had been passing under the name of Thomas Pugsley!

JANET SOALE'S EXPLANATION
Just before midday on Thursday, the third of November, my master made one of his unexpected reappearances. I was not surprised. Only the night before I had dreamed of him, and it seemed to me impossible that with my passionate prayers going out day by day, he should stay away much longer. When I first saw him turn in at the gate, I was filled with excitement. If he could have seen me at that moment, he would have known and understood everything. By the time he had reached the front door, however, and I let him in, I had regained my self-control. I must have seemed to him just the ordinary well-mannered, well-conducted parlormaid.

He changed his clothes and went off presently for his round of golf. When I went to his room to brush and press the clothes which he had taken off, I found, however, that he had placed them in a drawer and apparently locked it. This discovery, coming on top of many others, gave me food for thought. I resolved to watch the next morning's newspapers. It was becoming more and more clear to me that there was something in my master's manner of life which he was anxious to conceal from the world. I was the more convinced of this when I saw that in the top drawer, which he had opened to take out a tie, he had concealed a small revolver, loaded in all six chambers.

WHY WORRY?
If you find dinner on both sides of your vest, remove the spots with Blue Devil.

Every Minute Counts in the fight against constipation!

Once let constipation get a grip on you, and your system is wide open to 90% of human ailments. Statistics show that to be the proportion of illness that has constipation for a starting point. Pills and cathartics are as dangerous to the system as constipation.

Your physician will recommend Kellogg's Bran, because it is nature's own relief from constipation. It is scientifically prepared to relieve suffering humanity from constipation and it will do what no other food can do. It will give every sufferer permanent relief if it is eaten regularly—at least two tablespoons daily, as much with each meal in chronic cases!

Kellogg's Bran is simply delicious made into muffins, popovers, raisin bread, macaroons, pastiches, etc. Recipes are on every package! For health's sake get some Kellogg's Bran immediately. All grocers.

Kellogg's Bran is wonderful in its natural laxative action. It sweeps and cleanses and purifies the bowel tract; it scours out the dangerous toxic poisons; it puts you back on schedule time without irritation or discomfort!

Don't delay eating Kellogg's Bran each day in some form! Try it as a cereal sprinkled over your favorite hot or cold cereal or cook it with hot cereals. In the latter case, add two tablespoons for each person and mix with the regular cereal and cook as usual.

Oh My! Such Pain!

Right across the small of the back or over the kidneys!

It takes you right in the back! Sometimes in the arm, hip or foot. It's all due to an over-abundance of that poison called uric acid. The kidneys are not able to get rid of it. Grip, colds and rheumatism are hard on the kidneys. The blood is filled with poison and the kidneys break down. Such conditions you can readily overcome, and prolong life by taking the advice of Doctor Pierce, which is, "keep the kidneys in good order."

Avoid too much meat, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water, preferably hot water, before meals, and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking "Anuric," (anti-uric-acid.) This can be obtained at any drug store, in tablet form.

Ask for Dr. Pierce's An-uric (kidney and backache remedy.) Folks everywhere endorse it.

Delphos, Ohio.—"I had doctor'd a good deal for ten years. I often took different kinds of medicine for kidney or bladder trouble, but I never got any better. Sometimes I would be disturbed three or four times at night, never any pain, just uneasiness. I also had a soreness in my back and awful weak back. I sent for a trial of Dr. Pierce's Anuric (Kidney and Backache) Tablets and felt better from the first, so I went to the drug store and got a full size package and never had any more trouble. After that I can say 'Anuric' is just as represented."—Mrs. C. L. Cramer, Route 1.

AUTOS MAKE TRIP ACROSS SAHARA

French Government Interested in First Tour Across Arid Wastes

DIFFICULTIES ENCOUNTERED

Oases May be Stocked With Gas and Other Necessities

(BY MILTON BRONNEI)

LONDON, — (Special) — Autos may soon be displacing camel caravans on the Sahara Desert.

In an experiment conducted by Frenchman, five little cars completed the perilous 1800-mile journey despite shifting sands, storms, a shortage of water and the difficult conformation of the country which has so long thwarted Europe's leading railway engineers.

Ever since France became a great African colonial power, she has sought a way of linking up its possessions in Algeria, Tunis and Morocco with its rich equatorial regions along the Niger river. Ships do it, but they take a long time and, in case of war, are subject to the danger of submarines.

A railway across the Sahara has been dreamed of, but has remained a dream. So Andre Citroen, automobile manufacturer, decided to take a chance on an expedition across the desert. The French government stood part of the expense. At the head of the expedition were Messrs. Haardt and Audoin-Dubucq, both experienced automobilists.

Five cars were fitted with caterpillar tracks in place of wheels. They were painted spotless white, equipped with specially powerful engines and manned by experts.

The starting point was Touggourt in the Sahara where the French railway ends. From this place the expedition followed the well-known camel caravan routes across the desert to Timbuctoo, every variety of Sahara territory was crossed. There were not only the shifting sands, but there were sterile plains covered with huge granite boulders and others covered with stones. In some places the expedition was in danger from wandering nomadic tribes. One of the places crossed was the Tanesrouit — the country of death.

Nevertheless the party arrived safely at Timbuctoo, the one-time mysterious city of Niger. After resting there for about three weeks, the leaders decided to travel back.

As a result of the expedition it is expected that the French government will enlarge its military and governmental posts at the leading Sahara oases and will gradually stock them with supplies of oil and stores. The purpose will, of course, be to make them a part of a general scheme whereby automobile traffic on an extensive scale may be maintained across the desert if France ever feels either the war-time or the peace-time needs of it.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET WILL BE HELD TONIGHT

A father and son banquet at the First Baptist church will be held Friday evening. Dr. J. K. Barnhart is chairman of the program committee. Every boy in Sunday school has been asked to urge his father to accompany them to this meeting. Roy Barnhardt will deliver an address on "Father and Son", their relations to each other and to the Sunday school and church. W. J. Fitzgerald will speak on the subject, "The Father's Side." "The Son's Side" will be discussed by Warren Kable.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

When Back Hurts Flush Your Kidneys as You Clean Your Bowels

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, sometimes get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally. Also we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region begin drinking lots of water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is intended to flush clogged kidneys and help stimulate them to activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so they no longer irritate, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to people who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Adv.

States Plant Juice Relieved Awful Burning and Bloating in Stomach

A WELL KNOWN LIMA MAN

"I began to feel the effect of your plant juice almost from the first dose I took and I am now improved so much that I gladly recommend your medicine to the public," said Mr. C. N. Roeder, of 819 East Kibby street, Lima, while talking recently with The Plant Juice Man at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima.

"For months I have suffered from terrible aches in my stomach and at times my stomach would burn and feel like it was on fire," Mr. Roeder continued. "I bloated badly and it sometimes seemed that my heart was affected from the gas. I had no appetite and what little food I ate would put me in misery. I suffered often from headaches and was very restless at night."

"I read about your Plant Juice and the fine results so many people were getting from its use and so I started taking it and it is relieving my troubles right along. I have only been taking your Plant Juice a short time but already I have improved so much that I can eat almost anything I want; sleep good and pains in my head are gone. Those spells of burning and bloating in my stomach are nearly gone and, in short, your Plant Juice has done more for me in just the short time I have been taking it than anything else I ever used. I think its action on the stomach and liver is remarkable and I gladly recommend it to the public."

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Plant Juice is sold also in Lima at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.—Adv.

CAGE FANS HAVE CHOICE OF THREE GOOD GAMES

TOURNEY NEXT

With three fast games scheduled for Lima high school teams Friday night fans are promised a thrilling orgy of basketball.

Central, bumping up against an unknown quantity in the Norwalk five have lost no time in brushing their plays to perfection. The Central boys are determined to win their last two starts and thus have as good a record as last year's team. Although not much is known about the upstate five they are thought to be a fast snappy outfit. They boast of victories over Huron, Port Clinton and several other teams of prominence in the upper section of the state.

Coach Theibert with his men rapidly headed toward a real tournament form will give them more work in the next week than they have been accustomed to so far this year. It is known that Central has a fine chance to be one of the four winning teams at Bluffton and they will try hard to gain the right to go to Columbus.

Revenge will be the sole aim of the St. Rose outfit when they act as hosts to the Ft. Wayne 'vo' Friday night. The Hoosier team has three victories to its credit over St. Rose in the last two years and are anxious to keep up the good record.

On the other hand the Rosarians believe that they are better than the Ft. Wayne club. For the past two weeks they have been developing special plays for the Indiana boys and according to Coach Baker are ready to back up against the hardest opposition of the season.

In their last game of the season, said to be an easy one, South basketballers are anxious to pile up a huge score on the Wapakoneta five Friday night.

As this is the last time this season that the Tigers will look up to be the local fans they are working up the necessary fight for an impressive win over the visitors. Coach Burdette realizing that the game will be nothing of the sort has worked his men easily this week and they are in the right sort of condition.

Like Central, South will enter the tourney and Coach Burdette will give his boys a new bunch of plays next week to be used especially in the tournament. The Southerners have rung up an impressive record this year and are bent upon coming out high in the affair at Bluffton.

Hurlers Worry Huggins

NEW YORK — Despite the fact that a year ago Miller Huggins boasted he had the best pitching staff in the American League, that department is now his one big worry.

Carl Mays, figured to be a big winner in 1922, failed, and his status for the coming season is very uncertain. American League batters insist that Mays has lost much of his effectiveness, that his fast underhand ball no longer breaks down at once it did.

The question also arises as to whether or not Sam Jones has the temperament to pitch winning ball on a pennant-winning club. With nothing at stake Jones has always been a world-beater. However, the strain of pitching for a pennant winner seems to tell on him.

With Boston in 1921, and nothing at stake, Jones was one of the most effective pitchers in the American League. In 1922, with the Yankees, who were always in the thick of the fight, Jones had a very mediocre year. He just couldn't get going.

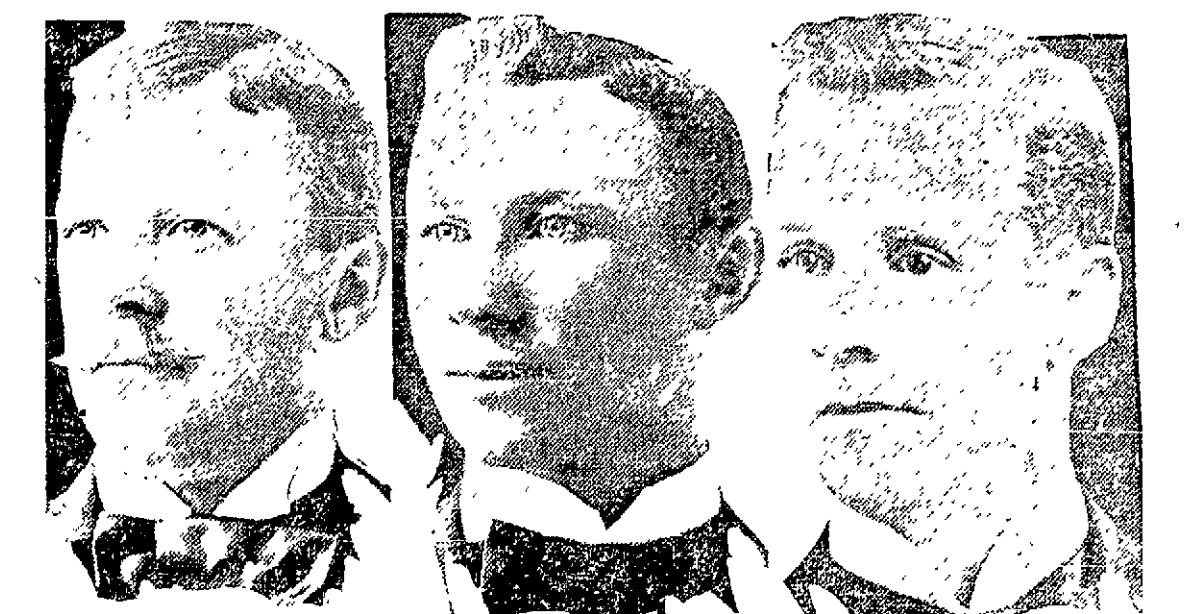

What about Joe Bush? Joe, with his fork ball, made over his pitching style and had a big year. It is a certainty that Bush will be no better.

Of the entire staff Walter Hoyt is the only member who should improve. Hoyt is a great pitcher and still coming.

The veteran Penneck is not going to be any better. He is a clever pitcher, however, and with a hard-hitting club like New York back of him should help the Yankees.

All of which makes it easy to understand why Miller Huggins is worrying about his pitching staff.

THREE BASEBALL BEAU BRUMMELS OF EARLY NINTIES LIKED TO DOLL UP

WILBERT ROBINSON, HUGHEY JENNINGS, KID GLEASON

Presenting three baseball Beau Brummels of the early nineties, Wilbert Robinson, Hughey Jennings and Kid Gleason.

The pictures were snapped when the three star players were members of the Baltimore Orioles.

It will be noted that the athletes stepped right out in style in those days, wearing the dress suit as comfortably as they did the baseball uniform.

Recently an old-timer said the Orioles rented the dress suit for the occasion and all the athletes wore the same coat in posing for the picture.

How American Invaders Lost Only Game To Japanese

THE JAPS KNOCKED THE COVERS OFF HOYT'S OFFERINGS

Only one game did the American team of selected big leaguers lose while "chaseballing in Japan" on their recent international expedition. The inside story of how the Japs chalked up the winning score on that one is told today.

BY WAITE HOYT

Pitcher for the New York Americans and World Series hero, I lost only one game on our trip, being beaten 9 to 2, by a team composed of the Japanese players. I understand this game was much commented on in the States. We got a report in Japan that because of the defeat the trip was to be called off, and we were to be ordered back home immediately. As I understand it we were accused of having bungled the affair, and thereby instead of helping the sport had injured it.

Since I pitched the game in which we were defeated I am in a position to discuss that game, and I want to say there was no burlesque to it.

Since six of the players on the trip were members of the Yankees and Giants, who participated in the world series, Judge Landis ruled that only three of the six could appear in the lineup at the same time.

The weather had been a trifle cold for about a week. I had been doing some coaching for one of the college teams and had been pitching daily in batting practice for the college. I had not figured on working the game in which we suffered defeat.

In the very first inning my arm trembled a little. I had been pitching a great many curve balls in batting practice, as the Japs are not very familiar with that style of pitching. Not caring to take any chances I pitched the entire game, using nothing but fast balls, and because of the soreness I had developed in my arm, my fast ball was just ordinary.

We lost the game, 9 to 2, due to one bad inning, the second. I believe in that inning the Japs made six runs. In that inning I allowed only two hits, but an error by each member of the infield enabled the Japs to secure a commanding lead. Outside of that one bad inning the game was very closely contested.

The affair was anything but a burlesque. The Japs won and deserved it. Our team simply had one of those off days that happen to every club, in addition my pitching was nothing to brag about.

TOMORROW: Irish Menus of the Giants plays some tricks by radio.

It has long been a theory in baseball that a quintet, which depends on team play and combination work to carry the ball down the floor for a close shot at the cage, will consistently beat an outfit that overlooks the passing end of the game to a certain extent, and depends mainly to long tosses for its points.

That theory, of course, still holds true. That's easy to be seen. I couldn't be otherwise. For it's far easier to drop the ball thru the hoop at close range than it is from a distance. In the latter instance the element of luck plays too big a part.

However, the old theory doesn't work as well nowadays. Simply because the defensive end of play has grown more efficient, and the guarding has become so close that it is well nigh impossible to pass the ball down court in order to obtain a "near" try at the meshwork. Get the basket is almost out of the question.

Consider the recent Western Conference game between Indiana and Illinois, which the former won, 31 to 24. In that fray, the two factions combined had exactly 131 shots at the hoop, of which only 23 resulted in goals. And of the 131 attempts but 25 of them were close shots, and 22 medium heaves. No less than 81 long tosses were tried. All told, 23 field baskets were scored with 13 coming on shots from near the cage, four on medium throws, and six on "Long Tosses."

Daubert Plays Brilliant Game When Others Are "Going Back"

(BY RILEY EVANS)

"Who is the best first baseman in the National League?" I asked Umpire Bill Klem of the National League during the world series. It didn't take him very long to answer my question.

"Jake Daubert played the best game of his career in 1922," said Klem. "Old Jake acted like a youngster. He did everything well and had a big year of it. Daubert easily was the most valuable first baseman in the National League last season."

Unquestionably, the play of Jake Daubert for Cincinnati last season was one of the remarkable features of the year in major league ball.

At 37 years of age, when most players are slipping rapidly, Daubert had a great season of it. He figured on going at top speed for three or four more years.

MADE GREAT RECORD Daubert played in every inning of the 154 games in which Cincinnati took part. His fielding average of .993 was best in the National League, a fraction of a point in advance of Charlie Grimm's mark. He batted .336, making 205 hits, of which 22 were triples—more than three batters than any other National League player.

Daubert, because he has taken the best of care of himself, goes no reason why a player shouldn't keep on delivering as a big leaguer until he is 40.

"Proper food and sufficient sleep are most essential for every athlete," says Daubert. "Eight hours of sleep is just about right, but more seldom does any harm. It is when the player gets less than he suffers. DON'T BE A PESSIMIST

"Don't be a pessimist. Look on the bright side. If you can't boost, keep quiet. The knicker never gets anywhere on a ball club.

"Take the game seriously, but try not to worry over its disappointing features, for in baseball you are a hero one day and a dud the next.

MILLER MISSED BY MICHIGAN

ANN ARBOR.—When Bill Miller, all-conference forward of the University of Michigan quintet, was recently declared ineligible, it was thought that the Wolverines had lost a great deal of their scoring power. For Miller was not only a clever basket shooter but also ranked as one of the best free throw artists in the Big Ten.

But while Miller's absence is of course felt, still in Captain Gilbert Ely, center, Coach Mather has found a worthy successor to his star forward. In fact the elongated pivot man has far exceeded expectations, and has stepped into Miller's shoes in a star style.

In the recent games with Miami, 83, and Wisconsin, Ely alone was responsible for 27 of his team's 49 points scoring 26 of the 34 markers made against the Gophers and 11 of the 15 accrued in the Badger clash. All told, Ely dropped in 19 field goals, and made good on 17 in 28 foul tosses. His feat of counting 26 points in a single fray is but one behind the season's Western Conference record hung up by Miller a short time ago.

Ely, along with Graham, of Wisconsin, easily stands as the premier center in the Big Ten, and when pitted against the cardinal stay recently, outplayed him by a goodly margin.

COLLINS RATED AS BRAINY

Eddie Collins is generally regarded as one of the brightest players in the major leagues. He richly deserves that distinction, because brains is always a part of his play.

However, it is possible for the best of players to be tricked and made to look foolish. Usually it takes an equally keen player to turn the trick.

Recently Collins was asked by an inquiring reporter if he had ever been made to look foolish on the ball field.

"Often," replied Collins, "but to Tris Speaker goes the credit of showing me up in the worst possible style, yet in being shown up I was playing safe, conservative ball. The umpire was the villain."

"It was this way. I was on second, another Sox player on first and one out. The batter hit a fly ball to short center field which I figured could be handled by an infielder and would be ruled an infield fly. For that reason I held my base."

"The umpire, however, failed to rule infield fly. Speaker trapped the ball back of second, then dashed in and touched me standing on the base, then touched the base."

"I had remained on second and the other runner held first, believing the hit had been ruled an infield fly. It wasn't, so when Speaker touched me standing on the base he retired me, and by touching the base he retired the runner on first who was forced to advance to make room for the batsman. That ended the inning with all hands looking foolish."

LEADERS TO HURL

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — The closest games in the annals of horseshoe pitching were looked for between the four top notchers in the annual world's championship tournament here today and tomorrow.

The "Big Four" in the race for world's title are Frank Jackson, of Kettering, Iowa; Frank Lundin of New London, Iowa, present title holder; C. C. Davis, Columbus, O., and Harold Falor of Akron, O.

Jackson has seven more contests to be played while each of the others has eight. All four won their holiday games yesterday.

Of six entrants in the woman's championship tournament, Mrs. J. F. Francisco of Muskegon, Mich., won the title with five straight victories.

FIRPO LOOKS BETTER

NEW YORK — The man who probably will be Jack Dempsey's next opponent, loomed up over the deck rail of the liner Southern Cross today and made the gangplank tremble as he trod ashore.

Louis Firpo, a year ago an unshaven ham and beaver, picking up small change by slugging and permitting himself to be slugged by a nondescript collection of second raters, arrived for a fight with Bud Brennan in the garden March 12. If he wins Tex Rickard has promised him a fight with Dempsey.

It was a different Firpo from the one booing crowds knew here a year ago and the Argentine declared himself a 40 percent better fighter.

"I will surprise some Americans who saw me fight last year," Firpo said in an interview. "In those days I just tried to hit. Now I have learned how to box."

"I estimate I'm at least 40 percent better than in those days."

The Buenos Aires Behemoth bent the beam at 220 pounds, although he has trained in a gymnasium arranged for him aboard the Southern Cross.

"I don't say that I could win from Jack Dempsey," he said, "but I am certain that I can give him a tough battle. The fight may be held in Buenos Aires or in this country. Nothing is definite until I have beaten Brennan."

Firpo was accompanied by Carlos Leguia touted in South America, a highly touted in South America, a diminutive secretary, Alfred Gutierrez and an interpreter. The Argentine consul and a group of fellow countrymen were at the dock and raised their hats politely as Firpo came ashore.

DELPHOS REMAINS IDLE THIS WEEK

No basketball for Delphos this week.

Managers of all local teams report a week of inactivity. St. John's high, originally scheduled to meet St. John's in Lima this week, has postponed the contest until next Friday.

Fourth of a series of inter-class games to decide championship of Jefferson high school has been called off for Friday because of a program. Seniors, juniors and sophomores are tied for first honors.

The Jefferson high road team also will remain at home this week, it was announced.

TUNNEY AND GREB TO BATTLE FOR LIGHT "HEAVY" TITLE

(BY JACKSON V. SCHOLZ)

NEW YORK — Almost anything is liable to happen to the light-heavyweight title when Gene Tunney meets Harry Greb again in the Garden Friday night to attempt to regain the crown which he wore but four short months. One thing is practically certain, that the coming battle will not be a repetition of the first. On May 27 of last year, Greb took unto himself the championship by administering a decisive licking to Tunney in which the latter also covered himself with fame by the display of gameness that sticks long in a fan's memory.

Tonight the champion will meet a different man than he did at the time when he himself was challenger. Tunney has improved greatly in the last year and seems to be strong physically, as well as wiser in the ways of the ring. Experience will come in especially handy in trying to land on Greb, one of the shiftest boxers in the ring.

On the other hand, Greb has shown no indications of late that his present condition is the same as it was at the time he won the title. But to a certain extent he cannot be blamed for this, as the illness of his wife, which caused the postponement of a former scheduled bout with Tunney, has necessarily caused him some worry, and to train properly a man must be at his best mentally, as well as physically.

Tunney can hit and Greb knows he can hit, which makes things a bit inconvenient for Tunney. Greb employs a windmill attack, which, coupled with a natural shiftness and crafty ring generalship, makes him somewhat hard to find when the betty wallows are being passed around. Their last bout was a sanguinary affair, mostly on the part of Tunney, and it is quite likely that tonight's fight will be little different in this respect. Tunney is very thin skinned and nicks easily, mauling himself and his opponent up generally, but imparting only a slight extent his fighting efficiency, after which, in passing, may be in Greb's favor if the bout goes to a judge's decision.

NEW YORK — When Harry Greb of Pittsburgh, American light-heavyweight champion, enters the ring in Madison Square Garden tonight to defend his title against the Graceland Village idol, Gene Tunney, from whom he took it last May, he will carry the assurance of state officials that he will be accorded fair treatment.

For William Muldoon, chairman of the state athletic commission, has telegraphed the champion's wife to this effect. Muldoon announced he had sent the message after Mrs. Greb had complained that she had received anonymous communications by mail and wire predicting dire threats for her husband when he meets Tunney. The threats were based on Greb's alleged unfair boxing tactics in previous bouts.

The contest is slated for 15 rounds.

LOCAL Y BOWLERS IN RADIO TOURNEY

The Lima Y. M. C. A. bowling team topped 2,481 pins Thursday night when they took the local drives in the National Y. M. C. A. Radio tournament.

The results of the matches were wired to New York and the results of the tournament will be broadcasted by radio later.

LIMA TEAM WINS

Lima Maroons walloped the Washington amateur champs 49-43 in one of the fastest games ever staged in that city. Nevergall was the outstanding star of the evening, scoring 15 goals.

Meritorious Bill Offered at Faurot

THE Faurot Opera House offers as its week-end attraction five acts of Keith vaudeville, combining harmony with comedy to make up a really entertaining bill for theatre patrons. Three of the five acts are especially good.

Opening the show Fulton and Mack, two clever gymnasts present a novel tumbling act in which they display superb agility. It is one of the few acts of its kind that is truly entertaining.

Harry Tyler and Gladys Crollus present a vehicle which they call "Brazilian Desert" in which they introduce their latest eccentricities. Mr. Tyler is a clever dancer, and has a line that is not entirely new but clever. His partner is quite unnecessary, we think.

Ned Nestor is a young man who wished to kiss the "Blarney Stone" and of course, on so doing was the first girl he heard singing.

A romantic little story follows. There is a girl in the act with a fine voice but we don't know her name. Offerings of this kind seem to be the most nonchalantly received in vaudeville houses here.

Bob Murphy possesses a personal ity all his own. He has his own way of singing, talking and of appealing to the audience. He not only possesses the ability to make himself entertaining vocally but is a comedian of high standard. An attractive young woman lends considerable charm to the act. She is a good dancer and singer and a modern flapper type of girl who will please immensely.

The headline attraction, the Earle and Rial Revue, is the best act of the bill. It is made up of many talented artists. Bob Earle and Gertrude Rial offer enjoyable dance numbers, both possess pleasing personalities. George Browning is an excellent eccentric dancer. Bernice St. John is a stunning brunette with an excellent voice and a talent for the piano and terpsichore. Many Kohn is a clever violinist who would make a hit as a single, and Jim Depiato, an artistic accompanist, complete the superb cast. Summing up, it is a melange of dance, comedy, and harmony that will prove one of the best attractions of the season.

That is the Faurot's meritorious program for the week-end.

"The Headless Horseman" Is Rogers' Latest Comedy

WILL ROGERS as the lanky schoolmaster in "The Headless Horseman" wins many more favorites to his long list of admirers who remember him as the perennial comedian of the Follies and who is one of the most popular comedians of the present day. All four of this is cast aside when you see him in this adaptation of Washington Irving's famous story, "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow."

The picture is laid among the Catskills immediately after the close of the Revolutionary war and is interesting from a historical standpoint as well as possessing full value as a comedy-drama. Will Rogers gives the best characterization of his career as Ichabod Crane, the superstitious schoolmaster, who comes to Sleepy Hollow. This is the time that witchcraft was in its height in the New England states and there was a legend that even a headless horseman rode thru the community. As a joke several boys in his class enter the school house at night and ransack the room, this is the first event which made the people of the village believe Crane a witch. He spends several months at the home of each of his pupils, while a guest at the Van Tassel home falls in love with the beautiful young daughter. But he has a rival and the scenes that follow to the end of the story are quite humorous, especially his escape from the headless horseman. A resident of the village many years later brought back the news from New York that Ichabod had become a successful lawyer, but the people believed, and the tale is still told, that the lanky schoolmaster was carried off by the headless horseman.

Any reader of Washington Irving will recognize the characters and the scenes as the ones described by him. It is a truly wonderful picture filled with humor and often pathos for poor Ichabod, who will win your appeal from the very beginning.

"The Headless Horseman" is the attraction at the Quilna for the remainder of the week. Buster Keaton in "The High Sign" and Quilna News precede the production.

Viola Dana In "The $5 Baby" at Sigma

THE $5 Baby, starring Viola Dana, is a screen version by Metro of Irvin S. Cobb's short story which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post. It is a very unusual theme at a brief to be a really successful cinema adaptation. Miss Dana is not offered the opportunity in this picture to present her usual charm and cleverness.

The story has its setting in New York's Greenwich Village. A baby who has been abandoned and picked up by a note who pawns it for $5.

The pawnbroker pears the child himself but the hobo manages to pay the ten cents a month interest on the child which entitles him to the right of the property in pawn. When Ruth reaches age of 18 the pawnbroker, is confronted with problem of giving her up or paying ten thousand dollars for the right to be her legal guardian. Of course there is a love plot in the story and the end is a happy one from every angle.

Ralph Lewis appears as the Jewish pawnbroker in an exceptionally fine characterization. Others in the cast include John Harron, Tom McGuire, Marjorie Maurice and many others. Rex Taylor adapted the story for the screen.

"The $5 Baby" is the Sigma's attraction until Sunday. A comedy and Fox News are added features.

"Reckless Youth" Pleases Optiences

"RECKLESS YOUTH" starring Elaine Hammerstein is the Lyric's attraction for the week-end. It is from the story by Cosmo Hamilton after a script made by Edward J. Montague. Ralph face directed the production.

The story is a modern society drama, concerning a frivolous girl who takes nothing seriously. She is a student in a convent and long for the hum of the outside world, plays one prank too many and is sent home. However on arriving home she discovers her mother has re-married and is enjoying a honey moon so she is sent to the cold, cheerless home of her grandmother in the country. While on a lonely tramp she meets John Carman who has a lodge near by and he falls in love with Alice, which happens to be the girl's name. Because of the austerity of her grandmother's house, she decides to run away and upon finding an aunt in the city all so gone, John suggests that they be married. To her, the marriage is but one of her many pranks but to John it is more serious. The incidents which follow are very interesting and lead up to an exciting climax in which Alice realizes her wrong.

Miss Hammerstein is charming in the stellar role and Niles Welch is an ideal leading man for this attractive star. The Hammerstein-Welch combination is becoming as popular as Talmadge-O'Brien. Mary Stedman, Louise Prussing and Frank Currier are other noted players in the cast.

Great Stanton to Escape From Casket Tonight

THE Dan Sherman unit show, now on its final days, will have no advance prices for this week's engagement at the Orpheum, offered an entire change of program Thursday which went over well. Each act was well received. The Great Stanton is the added feature and he has proved a very mysterious character. As an added attraction he will make his escape from a sealed casket in full view of the audience at tonight's performance.

Starting Sunday, Manager Shaw announces Verne "Buzz" Phelps and Gene "Honey" Gal Cobb, and a cast of 25 people. The opening show "Why Worry?" affords those two dolineators of the negro character the opportunity of their careers. It is filled to the brim with good whole some comedy and many new novelties are introduced. A carload of scenery is utilized in giving this performance and costumes are said to be gorgeous. The company is coming direct to Lima from a twenty week stock engagement in Munich, thereby establishing a record run for any musical company organization in the state of Indiana. There

NEW YORK — Opening prices in today's stock market were irregular but the main tendency was downward. Raising of the local federal reserve bank's discount rate resulted in some selling of the popular industrial shares, Baldwin, California Petroleum and Stewart Warner each of which had a lower. Foreign players dropped a point. Higher gasoline prices induced buying of some of the oil shares. Producers and Refiners being among the first to rise to higher ground.

Selling pressure was most effective in shares of coal carrying railroads, food processors and independent steels. Gulf States Steel dropped 1 1/4 points in reflection of speculative disappointment over the dividend while Stromberg Carburator dropped 2 3/8 on profit-taking. Losses of 1 to 2 points also were recorded by Corn Products, Jones Brothers Petroleum, United Retail Stores, Vanadium Steel, General Asphalt, Famous Players, U. S. Alcohol and American Smelting. Louisville and Nashville climbed 2 points to 152, a new high record, and Illinois Central improved fractionally but Delaware and Hudson, Norfolk and Western, Reading and Chicago Northwestern were lower. Among the few strong spots, were American Cotton Oil preferred, International Agricultural Chemical preferred and May Department Stores. Foreign exchanges were steady.

While the raising of the discount rate by the Federal Reserve Bank was regarded in some quarters as a warning to the speculative fraternity, several expert market observers nevertheless construed it as a bull factor. Pool operations, which were suspended in a number of shares at the start of the session in order to determine how much selling pressure would develop as the result of the higher discount rate, were resumed before midday and prices again trended upward with Baldwin, Studebaker and Gulf States Steel rallying a point or more from their lowest levels. Losses of one to two points were quite common among both rails and industrial shares. Reaction was checked, however, by a number of conspicuous gains, notably American Locomotive, American Can, General Electric and American Woolen, the last named rising 1 3/4 points to 105 1/2, a new high record for the year. Call money opened at 5 1/4 per cent.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Column of Anecdotes About Homo Folks

What is the funniest experience that ever happened to you? Write it out briefly and send it to the Short Shavings Editor of The Lima News. For the best contributed Short Shaving published in the week The News will pay $1. Full names and address must be signed.

Mrs. Vivian Bowers, 644 W. Elm st., writes: "One cold day my little daughter Evelyn, aged four years, ran to the window and noticed a man passing with a team of horses. She called, 'Grandpa, just come and look. Two horses smoking cigars and the man's got fever all around his mouth.'"

"One day last winter, I sent my son to a meat market to see if the butcher had pig's feet," writes Mrs. Kate Grant, 227 E. 2nd st. "When he returned he said, 'I don't know mother, he had his shoes on.'"

Mrs. Evelyn Yepsen, R. D. 4, tells that one day her little brother was helping her father build a shed. That is, he told her was helping.

when he ran a splinter in his finger. He ran to his father and said, 'Take that little board out of my finger.'"

This incident is told by Mrs. A. B. Holton, R. D. 4. "My nephew when three years old had a habit of singing. 'Get off your perch, birdie, you can't sing.' One night I took him to church, the minister had stopped his sermon and it was so quiet you could have heard a pin drop. Just then the minister said, 'Come down off your perch, birdie, you can't sing.'"

"My father and I were hauling in fodder on a flat bottom sled," writes Gottschall Hamilton, R. D. 3, Celina. "My nephew, aged four, was along. We noticed him going around the sled examining it. Suddenly he exclaimed, 'Why grandpa, where're the wheels that belong on this wagon?' That team will never pull the load because they can't turn around till you put the wheels on."

John Edwards, 130 E. 2nd st., submits the following: "My mother sent my six year old brother and an older boy visitor to the grocery. They went to a self service grocery. Immediately my little brother grabbed a sack and started to fill it with cookies. Say, you'll get heck for doing that," said the older boy and tried to take the sack away from him. It took much explaining before my brother could finally convince him that it was not a 'help yourself' grocery."

R. J. H. Edwards, Lima writes: "A girl in Central Junior High was reciting when she came to the name Lord Halifax. She said, 'Lawyer Halifax came home with his wife.' The teacher said, 'No, you mean Lord Halifax.' 'Oh Lord,' she said and a smile went over the classroom."

FASCINATING FOX TROT

Just Out

"Flower of Araby"

played by

Gene Rodemich's Orchestra

Seductive saxophone effects—the usual startling Rodemich variations. On the other side—"Three Little Words," another fox trot you're going to hear a lot. Like all Brunswick Records, every note is crystal clear, not a chord blurred, not a dull spot in it. Brunswick Record No. 2381

Fordsons

For Road Work

Eight Fordsons were sold to one contractor by the Burlington Auto Company of Burlington, North Carolina, and they will be used to make roads better. North Carolina appropriated $50,000, 900 for road construction and improvement and many Ford Dealers throughout the state placed trucks and tractors with contractors for this work.

Fordsons have many times proved their efficiency and economy in this line and with better roads programs being carried out the Fordson is growing in popularity every day.
